Chance Of Rain Is Gone; Hot Weekend

Clouds and humidity were gone today as was the likelihood of early showers after a hot, muggy weekend that found the temperature at or above the 90-degree mark both Saturday and Sunday in Gettysburg.

The high Saturday was 93 and on Sunday the mercury climbed to 90 degrees. Saturday night's low was a sultry 73 degrees, making one of the hottest nights of the summer.

New England shivered in cold rain and fog today and thundershowers pelted an arc across the northern plains, but skies were clear here and badly needed rains were nowhere to be seen.

WGET TO COVER CONVENTION DURING WEEK

Complete coverage of the Democratic National Convention will be offered on WGET-AM and FM this week. The live, on-the-spot broadcasts will originate at Atlantic City, site of the Democrat's get-together, through the Mutual Broadcasting System.

Delone High Sophomore Is Dead Of Football Practice Injury; Brain Surgery Fails

ALLEN J. WAGNER

Allen Joseph Wagner, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Eugene Wagner, 330 North St., McSherrystown, injured Friday in football practice at Delone Catholic High School, died Saturday night at the Hanover hospital.

The youth was knocked unconscious Friday morning when tackled by his brother, Robert Wagner, varsity cocaptain, according to Coach John T. Flaharty. The team physician, Dr. Anthony Tananis, examined the injured youth immediately after the incident and then ordered him to the hospital by ambulance. The five-foot, 11-inch, 160-pound Sophomore guard was starting his first year of varsity football play.

He was the first high school football fatality of 1964 in this state.

EXACT CAUSE UNCERTAIN

Dr. Donald E. Withers, deputy York County coroner, attributed the death to a subdural hermorrhage in the skull after a preliminary autopsy at the hospital, but said a final report will be issued by Dr. Thomas M. Hart, the York County coroner, in several weeks.

There was some doubt among medical authorities over exactly what injury caused the boy's death.

Dr. Laurence J. Adams of Lancaster, a neurosurgeon, said after operating on the victim Friday night that it did not "seem likely that the minor injury he suffered in practice could have caused this massive hemorrhage on the right side of the skull.

FIND MASSIVE CLOT

"He had a massive clot. There wasn't a mark on him. We hunted for a skull fracture for hours."

Dr. Withers said shortly after Wagner's death that it was possible "the boy could have had an earlier injury without knowing it."

However, he added the injury likely could not have occurred "earlier than one day before."

The preliminary report substantiated this belief, Withers said Sunday.

AWAIT FURTHER REPORT

"Because of the size of the damaged area, the injury could not have been received more than 24 hours before he was stricken," he said.

"There was no tumor, no abnormalities and no evidence of disease. We are awaiting a report on microscopic specimens and our study is not yet completed."

Dr. Adams said there was an unusually large loss of blood by the time the operation began about eight hours after Wagner was tackled. Ordinarily, he said, a victim loses consciousness and then improves over a period of days or weeks before a relapse in accidents of this nature. Dr. Adams added: "He tore a vein but how he did it I don't know."

WAS GOLFER, TOO

Dr. Adams said that while the youth was not breathing when admitted to the hospital at noon, by the time the operation began about 7 p.m. Friday "the youth seemed to be improving and his breathing was near normal."

Wagner played freshman football last year and was also a promising golfer. He finished fourth in this year's Hanover Jaycee Junior golf tournament and won the first flight in the Junior division of the Sears tournament June 29.

He was a member of the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown, and of the Holy Name Society.

Surviving are his parents, L. Eugene and Helena (Breighner) Wagner, and these brothers and sisters, Robert, Mary Ellen, Jeanne, James and Denise, all at home.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning with prayers at 8:30 at the Walter Funeral Home, Ridge Ave., McSherrystown, followed by requiem Mass in the Annunciation Church at 9 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee will be celebrant. Burial will be in the parish cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening for the Rosary at 8 o'clock.

OTHERS DISCHARGED

Two other players from Delone and two from Bermudian Springs who were also admitted to the Hanover hospital have been discharged.

Thomas Paul Neiderer, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neiderer, Hanover R. 4, was admitted Friday with a concussion and Lee Francis Linch, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlett L. Linch, 38 South St., Hanover, was admitted the same day with head injuries.

The two players from Bermudian were Michael Hertz, 16, son of Earl Hertz, Locust St., Abbottstown, admitted Friday with head and abdominal injuries, and James Jacobs, 18, York Springs, admitted Thursday with a concussion.

3 INJURED WHEN AUTO STRIKES POLE

Three persons were injured Saturday afternoon at 2:15 when a car in which they were passengers struck a pole near New Oxford. The accident was one of two investigated over the weekend by state police from the local substation.

According to the officers, Joseph E. Martin, 18, New Oxford R. 1, was driving south on Twp. Rt. 496 a half mile south of New Oxford, Saturday when his coupe failed to negotiate a right curve and struck a pole. Damage to the left side of the car was estimated at $100.

The three injured, all brought to the Warner Hospital here, were Burdette W. Markle, 21, New Oxford R. 1, and Roy D. Wwatt, 21, Berlin Ave., New Oxford, both of whom has lacerations of the head and Lionel L. Prout, 21, of 151 Breckenridge St., who had severe brushburns of the left arm.

CAR DEMOLISHED

No one was hurt but one car was demolished and damage to two others was $450 when three vehicles collided 6½ miles south of York Springs on the Hanover-Carlisle Pike at 6:40 Sunday evening.

State police said the car of Merle Eugene Sadler, 18, Oxford Lane, New Oxford, was demolished when it struck the side and rear of a convertible owned by Robert D. Barnhart, 52, York, driving it into the rear of a car driven by Mrs. Charles Diehl, 35, Hanover. Police said damage was $350 to the convertible and $100 to the Diehl sedan. According to the officers Mrs. Diehl and Barnhart were headed north and had stopped, when the north bound Sadler sedan approached and was unable to halt quickly enough.

CHARGE COUNTY DRIVER

A sedan parked in Hanover was struck by an auto Saturday at 1:45 a.m., causing about $95 damage to the parked vehicle according to Hanover police. A car driven by Philip Hagerman, New Oxford R. 1, struck the parked car owned by Carl W. Hankey, Hanover, and then continued without stopping, according to witnesses who informed police of the mishap. A witness obtained the registration plate number on the rear of the Hagerman car, and notified police. This led to a failure to stop and identify charge as a result, police said. Damage was not estimated to the Hagerman vehicle.

Big LBJ Roundup In Atlantic City Will Open Tonight; Try To Avert Rights Clash

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Democrats began opening the curtain on their 1964 convention today as they moved to pledge fair enforcement of the Civil Rights Act and to denounce lawlessness on either side of the fight.

While the Platform Committee hammered out this plank, peacemakers worked backstage to cool off the most heated dispute.

The Credentials Committee sought to find some compromise that would satisfy, if not please, both Southern states and civil rights supporters in the row over seating the Mississippi delegation.

CREDENTIALS ISSUE

At issue is whether the convention will seat the regular Democratic delegation or the predominantly Negro group representing the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party.

President Johnson, his nomination to be little more than a formality Wednesday night, has been keeping the party guessing as to his choice for a running mate as he called signals from Washington shaping the platform and trying to ease North-South clashes.

But a spokesman for Mississippi Freedom Democratic party delegation, Washington lawyer Joseph Rauh Jr., claimed today he had enough votes to force a floor fight over the Mississippi question.

NO COMPROMISE

He reiterated at a news conference that the group would not accept a compromise proposal that the regular Mississippi delegation be seated and the Negro group be given a voteless and voiceless place on the convention floor.

Rauh said his group was holding out for a plan where only those Mississippians from both rival groups who sign a party loyalty pledge would be allowed a seat.

The civil rights plank was a carefully balanced statement that "the Civil Rights Act of 1964 deserves and requires full observance by every American and fair, effective enforcement if there is any default."

SUSPENSE CONTINUES

As the convention got into high gear the only real suspense hung on Johnson's choice of his running mate. And he did nothing to clear up the mystery.

The name heard the most in the vice-presidential talk was that of the Democratic Senate whip Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota.

The weather for the opening session was bright and steamy — more or less traditional for political convention.

SEE CONCESSION

Thousands of delegates, alternates and their families mingled on the hot boardwalk with sunburned tourists.

Almost from one end of the boardwalk to the other were the likenesses or initials of stalls hawking mementos using President Johnson and the late President John F. Kennedy.

The balanced civil rights platform is an obvious concession to the difficulties President Johnson is expected to run into in the South in November.

ANNUAL PICNIC HELD BY VETS

Two hundred attended the annual picnic of the Gettysburg Barracks of the Veterans of World War I Sunday at the farm of Frank M. Merriken, commander of the post, Gettysburg R. 1.

Commander and Mrs. Merriken were in general charge of arrangements for the program while Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huff were general chairmen for food preparaton. Mr. Huff is also an officer of the barracks. Following the picnic those present took up a collection to help defray the cost of the food. Mr. and Mrs. Merriken and Mr. and Mrs. Huff announced that rather than accept the donation they will turn the money over to Scotland School for use of that institution.

County Commissioners Atlee Rebert and Edwin Motter, Sons of Union Veterans National Secretary Chester E. Schriver, VFW Officer John E. Kerrigan, Mrs. Allen Metz, Chambersburg, state president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of World War I; Pennsylvania Chief of Staff Al Patton of Paoli, and numerous other state officers including state Adjutant C. A. McManany were special guests at the picnic.

Paul Bolen, York, reported that a call to the national World War I Veterans Quartermaster William Walker Saturday revealed that the pension bill for World War I veterans has passed the House and is to go before the U.S. Senate.

State Chief of Staff Patton, who is also commander of the Seventh District of the World War I Veterans, announced that he did not feel one man should have two posts and said he plans to resign as district commander October 17 at the district meeting in Waynesboro. His resignation would advance Jesse M. Kline of the local barracks, who is senior vice commander of the district organization.

NEW CBS TEAM GETS PREVIEW SUNDAY NIGHT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — CBS had a sort of sneak preview Sunday of its new team of convention anchormen, Robert Trout and Roger Mudd.

The "break-in performance," as Trout called it, came from a booth overlooking the auditorium where the Democratic National Convention opens tonight. Trout was correct in using a show business term, "performance," because television coverage is closely related to show business and its personalities, to actors.

But the two leads who have succeeded Walter Cronkite in the network's news troupe cannot be evaluated on the basis of Sunday evening's appearances. They merely presided over a news program and there was really no chance to see either in ad lib operation.

EVERYONE BUSY

Howver, Trout, a silken-voiced man whose saturnine face belies a quietly droll manner, seems slated to handle the lighter side of convention goings-on. Mudd, good-looking and on the serious, incisive side, seems happier with hard-news approach.

There are about two broadcasting employes working on the convention for every five delegates, and it seemed that all of them were busy Sunday. A viewer could have kept his eyes almost constantly on either the Convention Hall or the Atlantic City boardwalk from noon until bedtime.

NEAT FIELDER

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota who seems to be everybody's choice for the vice presidential nomination, popped up on the screen almost as often as the commercials.

He was first on ABC's "Discovery" program, followed with a "Meet the Press" quizzing and was scheduled to turn up again on ABC's convention preview, although I missed that. He fielded all questions neatly, praising his party, his president and explaining his philosophy.

With only a few subjects of any real suspense — the President's choice of a vice presidential candidate, and the seating of two Southern delegations — all networks were put to a test in drumming up interest in the events of the next few days.

Juvenile Court Judges Confer

The Pennsylvania Council this year has joined with the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges and the Pennsylvania Juvenile Juvenile Court Judges' Commission to study the problem of juvenile delinquency. The theme of the session will be "The Use of the Behavorial Sciences on the Juvenile Court.

In conjunction with the work conference, the judges will visit the State Correctional Institution at Camp Hill.

PREVIEW NEW CARS

Local Ford dealers and their wives are attending a preview of 1965 Ford Division products in New York City today through Wednesday and will tour the Ford Pavilion at the World's Fair. P. J. Lerew and J. C. Lerew, East Berlin, and J. G. Guise, Gettysburg, and their wives will attend the three-day meeting, at which 130 dealers in the Washington sales division will be guests of the company.

Ed Lopat, whom the Yankees acquired from the Chicago White Sox in 1948, compiled a 109-51 mark during his seven years as a pitcher with the New Yorkers.

"MR. MOON"

I've often wondered why you wear . . . a smile upon your face . . . while watching over mankind . . . from your home in space . . . I do suppose it is because . . . you love your family . . . the sun must be a perfect wife . . . who fills your life with glee . . . you have so many children . . . and each one is so bright . . . playing in sky pastures . . . stars are your delight . . . sometimes you are prone to hide . . . and I miss you so . . . but you will slowly return . . . this I've come to know . . . God was truly gracious . . . when He let you shine . . . never stay away too long . . . or my heart will pine.

MUSMANNO IN PA. DELEGATION

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court says his selection as an alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention will not affect his continuing legal battle for the party's U.S. senatorial nomination.

Selection of Musmanno to fill one of 13 vacancies at the organization meeting of the 285-member delegation Sunday night came as a surprise.

Obviously, it was a harmony move to heal wounds stemming from Musmanno's hairline battle in the April primary with Miss Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs.

Miss Blatt, who ran independently against the organization-backed Musmanno, has been virtually certified the winner, but Musmanno is appealing to the U.S. Supreme Court to count 6,000 "wrong-line" ballots. A favorable court decision would give Musmanno the nomination.

Miss Blatt and Musmanno passed each other in the lobby of the caucus room but neither gave a sign of recognition.

Drivers Arrested Following Crashes

Hanover police report Cyril J. Shuda, 25, a resident at Hotel Hanover, suffered a sprained neck when a car in which he was a passenger sideswiped two other cars Saturday at 10:30 p.m. Shuda was treated at Hanover General Hospital and discharged.

Police reported the driver of the car in which Shuda was a passenger, David Z. Ford, Jr., 21, of New Oxford R. 2, was arrested for reckless driving and driving under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

Ford was fined $10, plus $5 costs, on the reckless driving charge at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Dayne E. Garrett, Hanover, and was released under $500 bond on the drunken driving charge to await a hearing.

Police said the Ford-driven car leaving the north exit of Center Square sideswiped two cars in the south-bound lane on Carlisle Street which were waiting for traffic signals.

Those cars are owned , police said, by Dennis L. Martin, 23, Hanover, and Richard J. Hahn, 34, of Hanover R. 3, chief of police of Penn Township. Total damages to the three vehicles were estimated by police at $700.

Richard P. Kress, 27, of 102 M Street, Littlestown, was arrested for reckless driving after his car collided with a parked Hanover police cruiser in the first block of Philadelphia Street Sunday at 3 a.m. Total damages to the two cars were estimated by police at $65.

Allie Reynolds, obtained by the Yankees from Cleveland, compiled a 129-50 won-lost record with the New Yorkers between 1947 and 1954.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The company of cavalry raised for the 100 days' service by Messrs. McGinley, Lott and Cobean, was not accepted by Gen. Couch and has disbanded. Capt. Warren's company, we learn, has been mustered into the service.

The number of students in the College last session was 115; in the Theological Seminary 23. Taking our national troubles into account, the affairs of the College are deemed quite prosperous. To meet the increased price of living, the salaries of the Professors at the College have been increased to $1,100. Henry E. Jacobs, son of Professor Jacobs, is appointed Tutor in the Preparatory Department, in room of Rev. M. H. Richards who takes a position as one of the teachers in the Allentown Collegiate Institution.

A story is told of a deserter who has a glass eye, which he used to take out when he wanted to get discharged, or when after running away he wished to avoid detection. He enlisted and left the service twelve times and will now leave for the last time, as he is to be shot.

Army pies are so terribly tough that the soldiers call them leather pies. A poor fellow of Grant's army, whose arm had been amputated, was being carried past a stand the other day where an old woman was selling pies, when he raised himself in the ambulance and called out: "I say, old lady, are them pies sewed or pegged?"

Bendersville Items: Mr. Chas. Longsdorf, Flora Dale, has built a large new tree packing building, whose nursery business has been and still continues very prosperous . . . . Emory Pitzer, son of Samuel Pitzer, a few days ago went to the orchard for apples and upon ascending a large tree discovered a large black snake coiled around the top branches. After obtaining aid the serpent was killed and found to measure 6 feet 4 inches long . . . . Layton, son of Mrs. J. C. Taylor, fell from a wagon last Thursday noon, sustaining a severe cut on the head . . . . Last Saturday afternoon and evening our band held a festival at Central Mills, three miles below this place, and through the energy and hard work of the citizens, the receipts amounted to about $85.

The United Presbyterian Congregation had a meeting Monday afternoon to consider their affairs, Rev. John Jameson acted as moderator. For several years they have been having reduced members, without a pastor and have had only occasional supplies. As quite a number of the members were asking letters of dismissal to other churches, it was, after full consideration, resolved to appoint a committee to request Presbytery to permit disbandment and dissolution. Messrs. William Walter, Wm. C. Lott and David Cownover are the committee. Everything points to its dissolution and ultimate sale of the property. There are still some bodies in the graveyard. The congregation was organized about April, 1753, at which date there is a record of the ordination of Messrs. Jeremiah Morrow and David Dunwoody as Elders. The old Log church, located on the old Dunwoody (now David Blocher) farm, north of Gettysburg, erected prior to 1774, was taken down when the congregation put up in Gettysburg the present brick building in 1805. This was the first church built in this town. Of the four old Presbyterian churches yet standing in the neighborhood the Hunterstown church was built in 1787, the Lower Marsh Creek in 1790-2; the "Hill" church in 1792-4, the United Presbyterian in 1805. Of these churches the "Hill" church is the most interesting because it has never been altered. It is today, internally and externally, as built - a perfect type of a Country church of the last century with its pews "straight-backed and tall, its pulpit goblet-formed, half-way up the way, the sounding board above." It is a veritable and venerable relic of the past. The Congregation has disappeared but the building remains; and it ought to be preserved.

Today's Talk

LIVING TRIUMPHANTLY

It was once said of a noted man that he had —

"Loved no darkness,
Sophisticated no truth,
Nursed no delusion,
Allow'd no fear!"

When I read that I wished I might have known that man. Indeed, I have known a few such human beings, but they are rare.

There are those who seem best pleased to travel on the dark side of the street of life. All's wrong with the world, but the wrong is mostly within themselves. They do not seek the light through choice. How inspiring is that line — "Loved no darkness!"

And then that second line — "Sophisticated no truth," that is, misrepresented no truth, but faced it, and understood it, as it was. No attempt to falsify it, or make of it something that it could not be. Truth always stands alone. And all too often those who know its worth and who have the courage to defend it, also stand alone. But such as these live triumphantly.

Now as to that third line — "Nursed no delusion." Probably there are few of us who have not at some time or other done just this. Not only have we nursed many a delusion, but we have kept it alive for a long time, until our intelligence and common sense have convinced us of its futility.

"Allow'd no fear!" What strength of character is suggested in this line. Probably nothing is so rampant in the world as is fear — fear of ill health, fear of personal failure, fear of the future, fear of losing some of our prized possessions, fear of criticism, and fear of death itself.

It seems to me that if we could make those four brief lines as applicable to us, we could surely own the triumphant life as our own. Is it not worth the attempt?

Just Folks

THE HOMEMAKER FAILS

They say she looked on marriage
as a self-enduring bond,
Which should continue here on earth and in the life beyond;
That once the vows were spoken,
if the man and wife were true,
Then neither one should worry—
there was nothing else to do.

She trusted him entirely and no
thought of wrong had she,
But there were things besides his wife she thought she ought to be.
So out on worthy ventures she began in time to roam,
And serving noble causes she forgot to make a home.

She labored long for culture and
for chairity she toiled,
But sometimes her husband's dinner was by hasty cooking
spoiled.
She had sympathy for others, but she never guessed or knew
Just how many times her husband
ached to share her pity, too.

I quarrel not with culture nor with
lofty motives pure,
I only know on these alone no
marriage can endure.
I only know what men are like—
and this is truth I write—
They want their wives to welcome
them when they get home at night.

Comedy Returns To Allenberry

Margaret Janney, a favorite with Allenberry Playhouse audiences last year, returns to the Boiling Springs stage tonight to play an exotic dancer in Richard North Gage's encore presentation of the perennial comedy hit, "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath."

A former performer at Gretna Playhouse, Miss Janney was seen last season in "Come Blow Your Horn," "Guys and Dolls," "Strange Bedfellows" and "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath."

Don Draper, who was starred in seven Allenberry shows earlier this year, is also returning to play Professor Matthews, a shy college instructor, whose hatred of women causes hiliarious complications when he is trapped in a ladies' Turkish bath.

Robin Nolan, who turned in sparkling portrayals in "Take Her, She's Mine," "Personal Appearance" and "Pride and Prejudice," is cast as the pretty coed who helps break down the professor's phobia about women.

David Brubaker, the Dickinson College professor who spends his summer vacation on stage at Allenberry, has the role of the professor's married friend, and Yolanda Bartoli, fresh from her triumph as Annie Oakley in "Annie Get Your Gun," is staying on to play Brubaker's wife.

The story, done in old-fashioned slapstick comedy style, finds the professor and several of his friends seeking refuge in a ladies' Turkish bath when the police raid a stag party. The resulting confusion, during which the professor's reserve against the weaker sex is broken down, makes for an evening of delightful escapist entertainment.

Houston Fights Encephalitis War

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The battle in Houston against encephalitis and its carrier—the mosquito — was being waged on four fronts today as the number of suspected cases continued to climb.

On the clinical front, at Ben Taub Hospital, nine new patients were admitted as possibly having encephalitis or sleeping sickness. Confirmation was impossible pending completion of laboratory tests.

Dr. C. A. Pigford, city health officer, who is coordinating the all-out war against the disease, said that as of Sunday night 120 cases had been reported in the Houston area.

Of this number, only four cases had been confirmed by laboratory tests. Blood specimens taken from approximately 23 cases were in variou stages of laboratory analysis.

SEE SIGNS OF CLOSE RACE IN NFL GRIDIRON

Associated Press Sports Writer

If Jon Arnett helps the Chicago Bears as much as Paul Hornung figures to hurt them, National Football League followers can expect another wire-to-wire duel in the NFL's Western Conference between the defending champion Bears and Hornung-hypoed Green Bay Packers.

The Bears hope Arnett, one-time All-Pro halfback whom they acquired Sunday in a three-for-one deal with the Los Angeles Rams, will add a breakaway threat to their lightweight offense that was further weakened last month by the tragic death of Willie Gallimore.

Chicago's offensive shortcomings were pinpointed Saturday night when the Packers and Hornung wrecked the Bears 21-7 in an exhibition game at Milwaukee.

BROWNS RIP STEELERS

The Bears didn't get untracked until Hornung, showing no signs of a year's inactivity, had run for two touchdowns, caught a scoring pass and kicked three extra points for a 21-0 lead. A fourth quarter touchdown pass from second string quarterback Rudy Bukich to Gary Barnes averted a shutout.

Cleveland ripped Pittsburgh 42-7; Washington tripped the New York Giants 27-24; Minnesota stayed unbeaten with a 24-21 victory over San Francisco; the Rams defeated Dallas 25-16 and Detroit topped Philadelphia 17-13 in other NFL weekend tilts.

JETS NIP BOSTON

The New York Jets nipped Boston 21-20; San Diego beat Kansas City 26-14 and Oakland outscored Buffalo 34-31 in American Football League action.

Arnett, 29-year-old veteran of eight NFL seasons, was hobbled last year by a knee injury but the speedster from Southern California says he is healthy and anxious to play in Chicago.

The Rams pried offensive guard Roger Davis, a 1963 regular, center Joe Wendryhoski and rookie defensive back Frank Budka from the Bears in exchange for Arnett.

Orioles Win 3 Of 4 From White Sox And Regain AL Lead; Robinson Sparkling

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's odd, but Brooks Robinson is at his best in even-numbered years.

This year he's better than ever and has a better than even chance of being named the American League's most valuable player — if Baltimore wins the pennant.

Robinson tried to see to that, sparking the Orioles to three victories in four weekend games with Chicago. Baltimore won their third straight 7-3 Sunday before the White Sox salvaged the second game of the doubleheader 3-1.

BUSY WEEKEND AT BAT

The split left the Orioles 1½ games ahead of the White Sox, who led by one-half game before the series started.

Robinson lashed three hits in Sunday's opener, scoring two runs, and drove in the Orioles' lone run in the second game. In the previous two games, Robinson knocked in two runs in Friday's 4-2 triumph and slammed a three-run homer that won Saturday's game by the same score.

His over - all performance, eight hits in 16 times at bat, increased the 27-year-old third baseman's batting average seven points to .308, his home run total to 22 and his runs batted in to 85.

YANKS EDGE BOSTON

Robinson reached his best RBI mark in 1960 when he drove in 88 runs. He dipped to 61 the next season but rose to 86 in 1962 when he also hit 23 homers and batted .303, his best marks in those categories prior to this season.

But the oddity struck again as he plummeted to a .251 average last year with only 11 homers and 67 RBI.

In other AL games Sunday, New York edged Boston 4 3, Cleveland took Los Angeles 6-4 and 3-2, Washington lost to Kansas City 3-1 before winning 8-5 and Minnesota nipped Detroit 6-5, then lost 5-2.

WIN FOR PETERS

One of Robinson's three hits in the opener was a key single in the Orioles' four-run outburst in the fifth inning. It was another Robinson, Earl, who singled in two of the runs. The rally helped rookie Wally Bunker to his 13th victory against only three defeats.

Gary Peters pitched the White Sox to the second - game triumph, scattering seven hits for his 14th victory in 21 decisions. Chicago scored all of their runs in the seventh. Floyd Robinson triggered the rally with a single and eventually scored on a wild throw by Sam Bowens.

Johnny Blanchard and Mickey Mantle each drove in two runs as the Yankees continued their recovery from a six-game losing streak. Blanchard brought in Roger Maris with sacrifice flies in the sixth and in the eighth while Mantle unloaded a two-run homer in the third.

SWEEP FOR INDIANS

Bob Tillman doubled and scored for Boston in the seventh and homered in the ninth.

Cleveland swept its second straight doubleheader from the Angels. Rookie Luis Tiant pitched a six-hitter for his seventh victory in nine decisions in the opener. Bob Chance belted three hits and drove in two runs for the Indians.

John Romano singled across two runs in Cleveland's three-run third in the nightcap. The rally was aided by pitcher Dan Osinski's throwing error. Felix Torres homered for the Angels.

Willie Kirkland led the Senators to their second-game victory over the Athletics, lashing a two-run single in a five-run fourth inning and slamming a solo homer in the seventh.

OLIVA WINS OPENER

John Wyatt preserved Diego Segui's victory in the first game, striking out pinch hitters Don Zimmer and Chuck Hinton with the tying runs on base in the ninth inning. Bill Bryan homered for the Athletics' decisive run in a two-run fifth.

Hank Aguirre won his third game of the season and his first since July 1, stopping the Twins on five hits in the second game. Bill Freehan hit two homers and Gates Brown and Don Demeter one each for the Tigers.

Tony Oliva's run-scoring single in the ninth inning won the opener for the Twins after Don Mincher tied the game in the eighth with a grand-slam homer. Jerry Lumpe and Dick McAuliffe clouted two-run homers for Detroit.

WASHINGTON Pa. (AP)—Greensboro, N. C., will represent the East in the Pony League World Series which begins Wednesday at San Diego, Calif.

Greensboro won the Eastern Division championship Saturday night with an 11-1 victory over Rome, N. Y.

A triple tie now exists for first place with regular season games scheduled for next Sunday.

Arendtsville, the previous leader, was handed a 3-1 jolt Sunday at Cashtown as Jim Neely pitched and batted Cashtown to its victory. In the fourth inning Cashtown scored twice. A single by Neely, error on Calimer's ground ball, and two-run single by Dale Sites accounted for the runs. The final Cashtown run in the fifth came on a single by Chapman, an error permitting Chapman to go to third base, and a single by Neely.

Arendtsville finally broke through Neely's tantalizing slow curves for a run in the last inning on a pinch hit single by Guise and single by Brough.

Littlestown and Taneytown moved into the tie for first place with victories.

RALLY IN 9TH

Two runs in the top of the ninth to break a 1-1 deadlock gave Littlestown a 3-1 triumph at McSherrystown. Bankert singled but was forced at second on Stauffer's attempted sacrifice. Snyder sacrificed Stauffer to second. Dusman walked and then Zanger blasted a triple to drive the runners across.

Littlestown scored in the fourth when Heyser and Yingling were safe on errors and the former score on a sacrifice by Bankert. McSherrystown knotted the score in the eighth. J. Livelsberger doubled, moved to third on a wild pitch, and tallied on an error.

Taneytown blased out an 11-4 decision at Mummasburg.

John Bevenour's second double of the game drove home W. Billman in the top of the 10th as New Oxford edged Brushtown 3-2 at the latter place. John Harner tosed a strong three-hitter for the winners while Joe Keffer, who relieved Heilman in the second, also pitched well for the losers. Harner fanned nine and did not issue a pass. R. Roth knocked in Brushtown's run in the seventh with a single.

Bonneauville overpowerd Harney 16-3 at Bonneauville to enable the winners to tie the losers for ninth place.

Says Eagles Are Threat In East

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Coach George Wilson, whose Detroit Lions defeated Philadelphia 17-13 in a National Football League exhibition Sunday, says the Eagles should be a threat in the East this year.

The Eagles have made many major changes since coming under the direction of new coach Joe Kuharich.

"I told Joe Kuharich that by the start of the season he'll have a team that will be a definite threat in the East," said Wilson. "They hit as hard as any team we've faced this year."

The Eagles have won one and lost two exhibitions. The Lions are undefeated.

The Lions' Milt Plum threw two touchdown passes and another of his passes set up a field goal.

JOE KELLY WINS

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Joe K of Quakertown, Pa., driving despite a broken hand suffered two weeks ago, grabbed the lead in the last two laps Sunday and won the 200-mile modified sportsman's stock car race at Trenton Speedway. Kelly earned $2,500 for the victory. His average speed was 90.5 miles an hour. Second was Ray Hendrick, of Richmond, Va.

PA. DRIVERS WIN

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP) —Ed Lowther of McMurray, Pa. and Bob Nagel of Pittsburgh, Pa., taking turns behind the wheel of their Ford Cobra, won the first 500-mile endurance race for production sports cars Sunday at the Glen International track.

Lowther, a homebuilder, and Nagel, an airplane pilot for Westinghouse, averaged 86.92 miles an hour on the rain-swept 2.3-mile track. It took them 5 hours, 46 minutes and 3.8 seconds for 218 laps.

PARKER SAYS HIS STEELERS LOOK BETTER

KINGSTON, R.I. (AP) — Buddy Parker gives his Pittsburgh Steelers a better chance to win the National Football League's Eastern Conference title this year than he did a year ago despite the trade of Buddy Dial for a drafted phantom who didn't sign.

Parker has spent most of the off-season defending the Dial deal in which the Steelers sent their flanker back to Dallas for the draft rights to Scott Appleton, the All-America tackle from Texas. Appleton finally decided to sign with Houston in the rival American Football League, leaving Parker without a tackle—and without Dial.

"We were just unlucky that we couldn't sign the boy," said Parker. "If I had to do it all over again, I'd do the same thing but I might not take the same boy. We needed defensive linemen more than we needed Dial."

COUNT ON MARTHA

The hope in Pittsburgh is that Paul Martha, a rookie from Pitt, eventually will take over Dial's job. To ease the pressure on the youngster, Parker has shaken up his receivers.

Talented Gary Ballman has been moved to flanker ahead of Martha and Pres Carpenter slides over to split end, leaving John Powers and rookie Jim Kelley, two Notre Dame grads, to fight it out at tight end.

The Steelers came within one game of winning their first championship last fall. A victory over New York on the final day would have given them the title. Instead they lost and dropped all the way to fourth.

UP TO BROWN

"I think we have a better chance to win than I did at this time last year," Parker says. "We don't have too much bench but we should be better if we can stay healthy.

"Last year we ran the ball more than anybody in the league, about 60 per cent of the time. This year I want to see us throw a little more."

If the Steelers do throw more it will be up to Ed Brown, the veteran quarterback whose off-day against the Giants in the 1963 finale proved so costly. Neither Terry Nofsinger nor Bill Nelsen appear ready to take over.

DIAL LED IN '63

With receivers like Ballman, Martha, Carpenter and Kelly in the line-up, the Steelers may open up with a little more passing. Dial led the club last year with 60 catches.

John Henry Johnson, still a fierce competitor at 34, and Dick Hoak, a strong runner without breakaway speed, are the top ball carriers. Clarence Peaks, acquired from Philadelphia, backs up Johnson and Theron Sapp, another ex-Eagle, is behind Hoak. Parker likes what he has seen of Dave Fleming, a free agent with no college experience.

The experienced front line is made up of center Buzz Nutter, guards Ray Lemek and Mike Sandusky and tackles Charlie Bradshaw and Dan James.

Ben McGee, a No. 4 draftee from Jackson State, has been the surprise of the camp. McGee fits into the starting defensive line at right tackle. Joe Krupa is the other tackle and John Baker and Lou Michaels the ends. Michaels also does the field goal work and Parker thinks his defensive work was affected last year by erratic kicking.

Sport Shorts

NEW YORK (AP) — With 17 Olympic trials on its menu this year, New York City digs into the main dish of five sports this week and next.

The wrestling portion opens first on Monday with the top wrestlers still undecided on which division — freestyle or Greco-Roman — to compete in at Tokyo. Olympic rules allow an athlete to compete in only one division.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Baltimore and Detroit meet tonight for the right to play Buffalo Tuesday night for the championship of the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Limited Division Tournament.

Detroit handed Pittsburgh its second loss of the double elimination tournament, 4-1, Sunday and Baltimore lost 3-2 to Buffalo.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston were out to retire the trophy today with a third consecutive victory in the National Doubles Tennis Championship, facing the first British team to reach the final since 1903.

McKinley and Ralston, the mainstays of the U.S. Davis Cup team that will defend its title in the Challenge Round at Cleveland next month, will be trying to become the first team to retire trophies since Bill Talbert and Gardner Mulloy did it in 1946.

Oliver Laughs, While Fox Rolls

Milwaukee Braves' first baseman Gene Oliver hugs first base as he laughs while Houston's second baseman Nellie Fox goes rolling. Oliver tried to steal second base in the sixth inning Saturday and when he saw Fox waiting for him, he started retreating to first. Fox was in hot pursuit and as Oliver dove for first, Fox made the tag and then tripped over Oliver into roll. (AP Wirephoto)

Gettysburg Little League

The fine pitching of Ron Kuykendall and exceptional defensive play led the Rotary right into the 1964 championship of the local league as they turned back the Lions 7-1 Saturday afternoon in a playoff game for the title. Both teams finished the regular season tied for first place with identical 9-6 records. The Rotary led the league for several early weeks. The Lions, under new head coach, Ed Markley, advanced from last place to the top spot midway through the season, were unable to clinch the title.

Kuykendall, playing in his last Little League game, displayed the type of pitching which has consistently made him one of the most respected hurlers in the league. He allowed but two base hits, both doubles off the bats of Dave Dick and John Saylor. He also fanned nine men to finish with a season high of 106.

The Lions tallied their lone run in the first inning. Dan O'Dell got on via an error, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Dick's double to deep right. Saylor poked his base hit to right in the fourth and the Lions loaded the bases in the sixth, but a squeeze play failed and the contest ended on the putout.

The Rotary took advantage of four Lion miscues, a hit batsman and a single by Tim Bowling to score three times in top of the first. A double by Don Biggins, two more Lions' errors and a walk to Dave McDermitt resulted in three more tallies for the winners in the second. The final Rotary run crossed the plate in the fifth when Jim Hartman singled to right, went to third on two wild pitches and scored on Jeff Crushong's single to center.

Crushong and Bowling paced the winners with a pair of hits each.

GOODLING IS WINNER IN LINCOLN RACE

Gene Goodling strengthened his hold on the Lincoln Speedway point lead by winning the 25-lap modified-sportsman feature Saturday night.

Pete Kantorsky grabbed the lead at the start, Clem LaMaster took over on the third lap and held off the persistent challenges of Gene Goodling. On the 20th lap, while leading by three car lengths, LaMaster spun in the third turn, causing a restart.

Gene Goodling inherited the lead and held it to the finish. Bud Folkenroth, Paul Miller, Peewee Pobletts, Neil Haight, Johnny Roberts, Bob Tester, and Irvin King followed to the flag.

Charley Cockey won a real wreck-infested 20-lap late model main event. Gene Saine, Mike Wooldord, Frank Constantine, Bob Myers, followed the victor.

Heat victories went to Ken Slaybaugh, Ray Fanning, Moe Harden, Paul Miller and Clem LaMaster finished the second modified heat in a "dead heat." Gene Goodling took the third S-M prelim. Johnny Roberts, Willie Musselman and Calvin Calp finished the S-M Consi in that order.

The Lincoln Speedway will continue to present Saturday night double feature stock car racing as long as weather permits.

ALLEN WOULD LIKE BIG GOAL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Memo to Warren Giles, president of the National League:

Richie Allen, the Philadelphia Phillies' outstanding rookie third baseman, wants the National League to put up $1,000 for the rookie of the year.

Allen, who hit two home runs Sunday in helping the league-leading Phillies to a 9-3 victory over Pittsburgh, is in what appears to be a two-man race with Jim Ray Hart of the San Francisco Giants for roockie-of-the-year honors.

"There's no money in it," said Allen. "Let them put up $1,000 for the rookie of the year and it would be worthwhile. I have a family to support. As it is, rookie of the year doesn't mean a thing."

Allen even doubts if the honor would be worth a great deal when the time comes to negotiate a new contract.

MAURY WILLS SOUNDS OFF ON BALK RULE

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two years ago Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers contemptuously paid a $50 fine to National League President Warren C. Giles with 5,000 pennies.

If anything, the little shortstop's respect for Giles has since diminished.

Wills, who has run his salary up to $50,000 largely by stealing bases, accused Giles Sunday of stealing excitement from fans and opportunity from good baserunners by failing to have the balk rule enforced.

UMPIRES PENALIZED

In fact, Wills charged, the National League office has gone so far as to take money away from umpires who tried to enforce it.

Said Giles: "If Wills has a complaint, he should make it in writing. And he should get his facts straight before making public statements."

Giles did not elaborate.

Wills did. He said he had a long talk with an umpire recently "and he told me the whole story."

ONE LOST BONUS

"Last year the umpires who were calling all those balks early in the season were called into the National League office," Wills said. "At first the league office had wanted the balk rule enforced. Then the umpires really started calling a lot of them and they were told to cut down."

This annoyed umpires, Wills said, because it placed them in the impossible position of having to judge not whether a pitcher was balking but "whether he was balking too much."

Wills said he learned one umpire "lost his Christmas bonus because he enforced the rule and I believe one also was cut in salary for the same reason."

HAS 38 STREAK

The section of the balk rule that has caused perhaps the most trouble is the one providing that, with a runner or runners on base, a pitcher working from the set position must bring his hands to a stop before delivering a pitch.

Wills said the stop requirement is being ignored and this makes it difficult for the base stealer to decide when to take off.

Wills has 38 steals so far this season.

Wills set a modern major league record in 1962 by stealing 104 bases.

2 HS GRIDDERS DIE OF INJURIES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two 15-year-old high school players died after suffering football injuries over the weekend.

Daniel D. Pavey, a freshman fullback, died Sunday after collapsing Friday during the first football workout held by Washington Court High School in Washington Court House, Ohio.

Allen Wagner, a sophomore guard from McSherrytown, Pa., died Sunday after suffering head injuries during a practice session by Delone Catholic High School.

Football deaths declined last year to 14 after 19 deaths were attributed to the sport in 1961 and 1962. At least four have been recorded this year.

NITTANY LIONS OPEN DRILLS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State's 1964 football team opens its pre-season drills Sept. 1 with 16 lettermen forming the nucleus of coach Rip Engle's club.

Engle expects to have 57 candidates on hand as the Lions prep for their Sept. 19th opener at University Park with Navy.

Penn State never has suffered a losing season during Engle's 14 years at the helm.

This year, he says, he lacks the "necessary experience at certain key positions," but feels his club will have "adequate size and speed."

Key losses from the 1963 team which posted a 7-3 record, were quarterback Pete Liske, ends Don Caum and Dick Anderson, tackles Harrison Rosdahl and Terry Monaghan, halfback Junior Powell and linebackers Ralph Baker and Bernie Sabol.

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Barbara McIntire, fresh from her second victory in the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf tournament, turns now to the Curtis Cup match to be played in South Wales Sept. 11-12.

Last year 72 full-length movies were made in Britain.

Richie Allen, Philadelphia's hard - hitting third baseman, wears orange shoes, four-button suits and sports jackets with buckles in the back.

Now he's trying to stick a couple of feathers in his cap.

A leading contender for both Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player honors, the stand-out dresser and outstanding third baseman belted two homers and a single, driving in four runs Sunday as the National League leading Phillies walloped Pittsburgh 9-3.

HAD TWO HOMERS

The performance lifted Allen's batting average to .313, gave him 23 homers and 66 runs batted in, and once again shot him front and center as a distinct possibility to become the first rookie in major league history to win the MVP award.

Allen, whose chief competition for MVP honors might come from teammates John (All-Star Hero) Callison and Jim (Perfect Game) Bunning, hit a two-run homer against the Pirates in the third inning, hit a solo homer in the fifth and singled home a run in the eighth

Bunning, who went seven innings, benefited from the support, bringing his record to 14-4 with a 2.17 earned run average despite being tagged for homers by Roberto Clemente and Donn Clendenon.

REDS, GIANTS TIED

The victory boosted the Phillies lead to 7½ games over Cincinnati and San Francisco. The Reds lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers and Phil Ortega's three-hitter 1-0 while the Giants edged St. Louis 3-2 in 10 innings.

In other games, the New York Mets swept a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 10 innings and 5-4 and Houston beat Milwaukee 7-1 in a night game.

Ortega, who hadn't pitched a complete game since May 19, brought his record to 6-5 by keeping the Reds in check. The Dodgers, meanwhile, scored their only run against Jim O'Toole, 13-6, in the second inning on a double by Nate Oliver and Dick Tracewski's single.

METS WIN IN 10TH

The Cardinals pulled into a tie with the Giants on Lou Brock's homer in the eighth but lost it in the 10th when Jesus Alou scored from third on Dal Maxville's error.

Alou started the inning with a single, moved up on a bunt, raced to third on Tom Haller's long fly and scored when Maxville let Harvey Kuenn's grounder get away from him.

The Mets won the opener in the 10th after George Altman led off with a double and took third on a grounder. Ron Hunt and Joe Christopher then were walked intentionally, setting up a force at any base, but Ed Kranepool ruined the stretegy with a well-placed single to left.

WIN FOR LARSEN

The Cubs tried the same thing in the ninth inning of the nightcap and again lost while the Mets won their seventh in eighth games. Bobby Klaus singled and wound up on third with one out. Christopher and Altman were walked purposely, but one out later, Charlie Smith singled in the clincher.

Larsen, who hadn't pitched a complete game since July 2, 1959 when he was with the New York Yankees, allowed the Braves only five hits and retired 18 batters in a row at one stretch as the Colts scored their third straight over the Braves.

YORK TEAM WINS

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Northeastern of York has won the state American Legion baseball championship behind the pitching and hitting of southpaw Jim Gabert.

The United Presbyterian Congregation had a meeting Monday afternoon to consider their affairs, Rev. John Jameson acted as moderator. For several years they have been having reduced members, without a pastor and have had only occasional supplies. As quite a number of the members were asking letters of dismissal to other churches, it was, after full consideration, resolved to appoint a committee to request Presbytery to permit disbandment and dissolution. Messrs. William Walter, Wm. C. Lott and David Cownover are the committee. Everything points to its dissolution and ultimate sale of the property. There are still some bodies in the graveyard. The congregation was organized about April, 1753, at which date there is a record of the ordination of Messrs. Jeremiah Morrow and David Dunwoody as Elders. The old Log church, located on the old Dunwoody (now David Blocher) farm, north of Gettysburg, erected prior to 1774, was taken down when the congregation put up in Gettysburg the present brick building in 1805. This was the first church built in this town. Of the four old Presbyterian churches yet standing in the neighborhood the Hunterstown church was built in 1787, the Lower Marsh Creek in 1790-2; the "Hill" church in 1792-4, the United Presbyterian in 1805. Of these churches the "Hill" church is the most interesting because it has never been altered. It is today, internally and externally, as built - a perfect type of a Country church of the last century with its pews "straight-backed and tall, its pulpit goblet-formed, half-way up the way, the sounding board above." It is a veritable and venerable relic of the past. The Congregation has disappeared but the building remains; and it ought to be preserved.

Today's Talk

LIVING TRIUMPHANTLY

It was once said of a noted man that he had —

"Loved no darkness,
Sophisticated no truth,
Nursed no delusion,
Allow'd no fear!"

When I read that I wished I might have known that man. Indeed, I have known a few such human beings, but they are rare.

There are those who seem best pleased to travel on the dark side of the street of life. All's wrong with the world, but the wrong is mostly within themselves. They do not seek the light through choice. How inspiring is that line — "Loved no darkness!"

And then that second line — "Sophisticated no truth," that is, misrepresented no truth, but faced it, and understood it, as it was. No attempt to falsify it, or make of it something that it could not be. Truth always stands alone. And all too often those who know its worth and who have the courage to defend it, also stand alone. But such as these live triumphantly.

Now as to that third line — "Nursed no delusion." Probably there are few of us who have not at some time or other done just this. Not only have we nursed many a delusion, but we have kept it alive for a long time, until our intelligence and common sense have convinced us of its futility.

"Allow'd no fear!" What strength of character is suggested in this line. Probably nothing is so rampant in the world as is fear — fear of ill health, fear of personal failure, fear of the future, fear of losing some of our prized possessions, fear of criticism, and fear of death itself.

It seems to me that if we could make those four brief lines as applicable to us, we could surely own the triumphant life as our own. Is it not worth the attempt?

Just Folks

THE HOMEMAKER FAILS

They say she looked on marriage
as a self-enduring bond,
Which should continue here on earth and in the life beyond;
That once the vows were spoken,
if the man and wife were true,
Then neither one should worry—
there was nothing else to do.

She trusted him entirely and no
thought of wrong had she,
But there were things besides his wife she thought she ought to
be.
So out on worthy ventures she
began in time to roam,
And serving noble causes she forgot to make a home.

She labored long for culture and
for chairity she toiled,
But sometimes her husband's dinner was by hasty cooking
spoiled.
She had sympathy for others, but
she never guessed or knew
Just how many times her husband
ached to share her pity, too.

I quarrel not with culture nor with
lofty motives pure,
I only know on these alone no
marriage can endure.
I only know what men are like—
and this is truth I write—
They want their wives to welcome
them when they get home at night.

Speedy Scott Is Nearer 2nd Title

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Speedy Scot, virtually assured of a second straight Harness Horse of the Year title, now turns his sights to a premier trotting series for 4-year-olds.

Speedy Scot, the new sensation of the trotting world, easily won the $50,000 Roosevelt International Trot Saturday night, deposing gallant old Su Mac Lad as champion of this glamorous global event.

Old Sumie, now 10, was second in the International.

It was the sixth straight victory for Speedy Scot, 4-year-old star of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vannlennep's Castleton Farm of Lexington, Ky. and posed the question of what competition remains in his path towards a second straight harness horse of the year title.

Former Pastor To Preach On Sunday

The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor emeritus of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will be in charge of the worship services next Sunday morning. The Intermediate Choir will sing at the 8 a.m. service when the acolyte will be Jane Keefer and the ushers will be Alfred Stover, Barry Harner, Richard Maitland and Terry Morelock; Robert Harmon will be acolyte at the 10:30 worship and the ushers will be Luther G. Myers, Harry Hess, Walter Bemiller and John H. Riley.

The services on Sunday were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kammerer, who read the scriptures from Zechariah, Galatians and Luke. The Luther League Choir sang at the early service. The altar flowers were placed in memory of Mrs. Henry Stover by Mr. and Mrs. H. Dean Stover.

It was announced that persons needing pastoral care during the absence of the Rev. Graham T. Rinehart should contact the church office or Dean Stover, lay president of the congregation. The new courses of study in all departments of the Sunday School, Third Grade through adult, will begin on September 13. Registration blanks to attend St. Paul's Kindergarten are available in the narthex or by calling Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday morning. Kindergarten will begin on September 8.

600 SEE BENEFIT

Over 600 fans attended the Littlestown Little League benefit softball game on Saturday night at Memorial Field. The mothers of Little Leaguers opposed the fathers, who played with a reverse handicap, and the resulting score was a 10-10 tie. Over 700 tickets were sold for the event. The proceeds realized will be used to purchase additional equipment and uniforms for the local Little League.

Comedy Returns To Allenberry

Margaret Janney, a favorite with Allenberry Playhouse audiences last year, returns to the Boiling Springs stage tonight to play an exotic dancer in Richard North Gage's encore presentation of the perennial comedy hit, "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath."

A former performer at Gretna Playhouse, Miss Janney was seen last season in "Come Blow Your Horn," "Guys and Dolls," "Strange Bedfellows" and "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath."

Don Draper, who was starred in seven Allenberry shows earlier this year, is also returning to play Professor Matthews, a shy college instructor, whose hatred of women causes hiliarious complications when he is trapped in a ladies' Turkish bath.

Robin Nolan, who turned in sparkling portrayals in "Take Her, She's Mine," "Personal Appearance" and "Pride and Prejudice," is cast as the pretty coed who helps break down the professor's phobia about women.

David Brubaker, the Dickinson College professor who spends his summer vacation on stage at Allenberry, has the role of the professor's married friend, and Yolanda Bartoli, fresh from her triumph as Annie Oakley in "Annie Get Your Gun," is staying on to play Brubaker's wife.

The story, done in old-fashioned slapstick comedy style, finds the professor and several of his friends seeking refuge in a ladies' Turkish bath when the police raid a stag party. The resulting confusion, during which the professor's reserve against the weaker sex is broken down, makes for an evening of delightful escapist entertainment.

Houston Fights Encephalitis War

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The battle in Houston against encephalitis and its carrier—the mosquito — was being waged on four fronts today as the number of suspected cases continued to climb.

On the clinical front, at Ben Taub Hospital, nine new patients were admitted as possibly having encephalitis or sleeping sickness. Confirmation was impossible pending completion of laboratory tests.

Dr. C. A. Pigford, city health officer, who is coordinating the all-out war against the disease, said that as of Sunday night 120 cases had been reported in the Houston area.

Of this number, only four cases had been confirmed by laboratory tests. Blood specimens taken from approximately 23 cases were in variou stages of laboratory analysis.

SEE SIGNS OF CLOSE RACE IN NFL GRIDIRON

Associated Press Sports Writer

If Jon Arnett helps the Chicago Bears as much as Paul Hornung figures to hurt them, National Football League followers can expect another wire-to-wire duel in the NFL's Western Conference between the defending champion Bears and Hornung-hypoed Green Bay Packers.

The Bears hope Arnett, one-time All-Pro halfback whom they acquired Sunday in a three-for-one deal with the Los Angeles Rams, will add a breakaway threat to their lightweight offense that was further weakened last month by the tragic death of Willie Gallimore.

Chicago's offensive shortcomings were pinpointed Saturday night when the Packers and Hornung wrecked the Bears 21-7 in an exhibition game at Milwaukee.

BROWNS RIP STEELERS

The Bears didn't get untracked until Hornung, showing no signs of a year's inactivity, had run for two touchdowns, caught a scoring pass and kicked three extra points for a 21-0 lead. A fourth quarter touchdown pass from second string quarterback Rudy Bukich to Gary Barnes averted a shutout.

Cleveland ripped Pittsburgh 42-7; Washington tripped the New York Giants 27-24; Minnesota stayed unbeaten with a 24-21 victory over San Francisco; the Rams defeated Dallas 25-16 and Detroit topped Philadelphia 17-13 in other NFL weekend tilts.

JETS NIP BOSTON

The New York Jets nipped Boston 21-20; San Diego beat Kansas City 26-14 and Oakland outscored Buffalo 34-31 in American Football League action.

Arnett, 29-year-old veteran of eight NFL seasons, was hobbled last year by a knee injury but the speedster from Southern California says he is healthy and anxious to play in Chicago.

The Rams pried offensive guard Roger Davis, a 1963 regular, center Joe Wendryhoski and rookie defensive back Frank Budka from the Bears in exchange for Arnett.

Orioles Win 3 Of 4 From White Sox And Regain AL Lead; Robinson Sparkling

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's odd, but Brooks Robinson is at his best in even-numbered years.

This year he's better than ever and has a better than even chance of being named the American League's most valuable player — if Baltimore wins the pennant.

Robinson tried to see to that, sparking the Orioles to three victories in four weekend games with Chicago. Baltimore won their third straight 7-3 Sunday before the White Sox salvaged the second game of the doubleheader 3-1.

BUSY WEEKEND AT BAT

The split left the Orioles 1½ games ahead of the White Sox, who led by one-half game before the series started.

Robinson lashed three hits in Sunday's opener, scoring two runs, and drove in the Orioles' lone run in the second game. In the previous two games, Robinson knocked in two runs in Friday's 4-2 triumph and slammed a three-run homer that won Saturday's game by the same score.

His over - all performance, eight hits in 16 times at bat, increased the 27-year-old third baseman's batting average seven points to .308, his home run total to 22 and his runs batted in to 85.

YANKS EDGE BOSTON

Robinson reached his best RBI mark in 1960 when he drove in 88 runs. He dipped to 61 the next season but rose to 86 in 1962 when he also hit 23 homers and batted .303, his best marks in those categories prior to this season.

But the oddity struck again as he plummeted to a .251 average last year with only 11 homers and 67 RBI.

In other AL games Sunday, New York edged Boston 4 3, Cleveland took Los Angeles 6-4 and 3-2, Washington lost to Kansas City 3-1 before winning 8-5 and Minnesota nipped Detroit 6-5, then lost 5-2.

WIN FOR PETERS

One of Robinson's three hits in the opener was a key single in the Orioles' four-run outburst in the fifth inning. It was another Robinson, Earl, who singled in two of the runs. The rally helped rookie Wally Bunker to his 13th victory against only three defeats.

Gary Peters pitched the White Sox to the second - game triumph, scattering seven hits for his 14th victory in 21 decisions. Chicago scored all of their runs in the seventh. Floyd Robinson triggered the rally with a single and eventually scored on a wild throw by Sam Bowens.

Johnny Blanchard and Mickey Mantle each drove in two runs as the Yankees continued their recovery from a six-game losing streak. Blanchard brought in Roger Maris with sacrifice flies in the sixth and in the eighth while Mantle unloaded a two-run homer in the third.

SWEEP FOR INDIANS

Bob Tillman doubled and scored for Boston in the seventh and homered in the ninth.

Cleveland swept its second straight doubleheader from the Angels. Rookie Luis Tiant pitched a six-hitter for his seventh victory in nine decisions in the opener. Bob Chance belted three hits and drove in two runs for the Indians.

John Romano singled across two runs in Cleveland's three-run third in the nightcap. The rally was aided by pitcher Dan Osinski's throwing error. Felix Torres homered for the Angels.

Willie Kirkland led the Senators to their second-game victory over the Athletics, lashing a two-run single in a five-run fourth inning and slamming a solo homer in the seventh.

OLIVA WINS OPENER

John Wyatt preserved Diego Segui's victory in the first game, striking out pinch hitters Don Zimmer and Chuck Hinton with the tying runs on base in the ninth inning. Bill Bryan homered for the Athletics' decisive run in a two-run fifth.

Hank Aguirre won his third game of the season and his first since July 1, stopping the Twins on five hits in the second game. Bill Freehan hit two homers and Gates Brown and Don Demeter one each for the Tigers.

Tony Oliva's run-scoring single in the ninth inning won the opener for the Twins after Don Mincher tied the game in the eighth with a grand-slam homer. Jerry Lumpe and Dick McAuliffe clouted two-run homers for Detroit.

WASHINGTON Pa. (AP)—Greensboro, N. C., will represent the East in the Pony League World Series which begins Wednesday at San Diego, Calif.

Greensboro won the Eastern Division championship Saturday night with an 11-1 victory over Rome, N. Y.

A triple tie now exists for first place with regular season games scheduled for next Sunday.

Arendtsville, the previous leader, was handed a 3-1 jolt Sunday at Cashtown as Jim Neely pitched and batted Cashtown to its victory. In the fourth inning Cashtown scored twice. A single by Neely, error on Calimer's ground ball, and two-run single by Dale Sites accounted for the runs. The final Cashtown run in the fifth came on a single by Chapman, an error permitting Chapman to go to third base, and a single by Neely.

Arendtsville finally broke through Neely's tantalizing slow curves for a run in the last inning on a pinch hit single by Guise and single by Brough.

Littlestown and Taneytown moved into the tie for first place with victories.

RALLY IN 9TH

Two runs in the top of the ninth to break a 1-1 deadlock gave Littlestown a 3-1 triumph at McSherrystown. Bankert singled but was forced at second on Stauffer's attempted sacrifice. Snyder sacrificed Stauffer to second. Dusman walked and then Zanger blasted a triple to drive the runners across.

Littlestown scored in the fourth when Heyser and Yingling were safe on errors and the former score on a sacrifice by Bankert. McSherrystown knotted the score in the eighth. J. Livelsberger doubled, moved to third on a wild pitch, and tallied on an error.

Taneytown blased out an 11-4 decision at Mummasburg.

John Bevenour's second double of the game drove home W. Billman in the top of the 10th as New Oxford edged Brushtown 3-2 at the latter place. John Harner tosed a strong three-hitter for the winners while Joe Keffer, who relieved Heilman in the second, also pitched well for the losers. Harner fanned nine and did not issue a pass. R. Roth knocked in Brushtown's run in the seventh with a single.

Bonneauville overpowerd Harney 16-3 at Bonneauville to enable the winners to tie the losers for ninth place.

Says Eagles Are Threat In East

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Coach George Wilson, whose Detroit Lions defeated Philadelphia 17-13 in a National Football League exhibition Sunday, says the Eagles should be a threat in the East this year.

The Eagles have made many major changes since coming under the direction of new coach Joe Kuharich.

"I told Joe Kuharich that by the start of the season he'll have a team that will be a definite threat in the East," said Wilson. "They hit as hard as any team we've faced this year."

The Eagles have won one and lost two exhibitions. The Lions are undefeated.

The Lions' Milt Plum threw two touchdown passes and another of his passes set up a field goal.

JOE KELLY WINS

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Joe K of Quakertown, Pa., driving despite a broken hand suffered two weeks ago, grabbed the lead in the last two laps Sunday and won the 200-mile modified sportsman's stock car race at Trenton Speedway. Kelly earned $2,500 for the victory. His average speed was 90.5 miles an hour. Second was Ray Hendrick, of Richmond, Va.

PA. DRIVERS WIN

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (AP) —Ed Lowther of McMurray, Pa. and Bob Nagel of Pittsburgh, Pa., taking turns behind the wheel of their Ford Cobra, won the first 500-mile endurance race for production sports cars Sunday at the Glen International track.

Lowther, a homebuilder, and Nagel, an airplane pilot for Westinghouse, averaged 86.92 miles an hour on the rain-swept 2.3-mile track. It took them 5 hours, 46 minutes and 3.8 seconds for 218 laps.

PARKER SAYS HIS STEELERS LOOK BETTER

KINGSTON, R.I. (AP) — Buddy Parker gives his Pittsburgh Steelers a better chance to win the National Football League's Eastern Conference title this year than he did a year ago despite the trade of Buddy Dial for a drafted phantom who didn't sign.

Parker has spent most of the off-season defending the Dial deal in which the Steelers sent their flanker back to Dallas for the draft rights to Scott Appleton, the All-America tackle from Texas. Appleton finally decided to sign with Houston in the rival American Football League, leaving Parker without a tackle—and without Dial.

"We were just unlucky that we couldn't sign the boy," said Parker. "If I had to do it all over again, I'd do the same thing but I might not take the same boy. We needed defensive linemen more than we needed Dial."

COUNT ON MARTHA

The hope in Pittsburgh is that Paul Martha, a rookie from Pitt, eventually will take over Dial's job. To ease the pressure on the youngster, Parker has shaken up his receivers.

Talented Gary Ballman has been moved to flanker ahead of Martha and Pres Carpenter slides over to split end, leaving John Powers and rookie Jim Kelley, two Notre Dame grads, to fight it out at tight end.

The Steelers came within one game of winning their first championship last fall. A victory over New York on the final day would have given them the title. Instead they lost and dropped all the way to fourth.

UP TO BROWN

"I think we have a better chance to win than I did at this time last year," Parker says. "We don't have too much bench but we should be better if we can stay healthy.

"Last year we ran the ball more than anybody in the league, about 60 per cent of the time. This year I want to see us throw a little more."

If the Steelers do throw more it will be up to Ed Brown, the veteran quarterback whose off-day against the Giants in the 1963 finale proved so costly. Neither Terry Nofsinger nor Bill Nelsen appear ready to take over.

DIAL LED IN '63

With receivers like Ballman, Martha, Carpenter and Kelly in the line-up, the Steelers may open up with a little more passing. Dial led the club last year with 60 catches.

John Henry Johnson, still a fierce competitor at 34, and Dick Hoak, a strong runner without breakaway speed, are the top ball carriers. Clarence Peaks, acquired from Philadelphia, backs up Johnson and Theron Sapp, another ex-Eagle, is behind Hoak. Parker likes what he has seen of Dave Fleming, a free agent with no college experience.

The experienced front line is made up of center Buzz Nutter, guards Ray Lemek and Mike Sandusky and tackles Charlie Bradshaw and Dan James.

Ben McGee, a No. 4 draftee from Jackson State, has been the surprise of the camp. McGee fits into the starting defensive line at right tackle. Joe Krupa is the other tackle and John Baker and Lou Michaels the ends. Michaels also does the field goal work and Parker thinks his defensive work was affected last year by erratic kicking.

NEW YORK (AP) — With 17 Olympic trials on its menu this year, New York City digs into the main dish of five sports this week and next.

The wrestling portion opens first on Monday with the top wrestlers still undecided on which division — freestyle or Greco-Roman — to compete in at Tokyo. Olympic rules allow an athlete to compete in only one division.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Baltimore and Detroit meet tonight for the right to play Buffalo Tuesday night for the championship of the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Limited Division Tournament.

Detroit handed Pittsburgh its second loss of the double elimination tournament, 4-1, Sunday and Baltimore lost 3-2 to Buffalo.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston were out to retire the trophy today with a third consecutive victory in the National Doubles Tennis Championship, facing the first British team to reach the final since 1903.

McKinley and Ralston, the mainstays of the U.S. Davis Cup team that will defend its title in the Challenge Round at Cleveland next month, will be trying to become the first team to retire trophies since Bill Talbert and Gardner Mulloy did it in 1946.

Oliver Laughs, While Fox Rolls

Milwaukee Braves' first baseman Gene Oliver hugs first base as he laughs while Houston's second baseman Nellie Fox goes rolling. Oliver tried to steal second base in the sixth inning Saturday and when he saw Fox waiting for him, he started retreating to first. Fox was in hot pursuit and as Oliver dove for first, Fox made the tag and then tripped over Oliver into roll. (AP Wirephoto)

Gettysburg Little League

The fine pitching of Ron Kuykendall and exceptional defensive play led the Rotary right into the 1964 championship of the local league as they turned back the Lions 7-1 Saturday afternoon in a playoff game for the title. Both teams finished the regular season tied for first place with identical 9-6 records. The Rotary led the league for several early weeks. The Lions, under new head coach, Ed Markley, advanced from last place to the top spot midway through the season, were unable to clinch the title.

Kuykendall, playing in his last Little League game, displayed the type of pitching which has consistently made him one of the most respected hurlers in the league. He allowed but two base hits, both doubles off the bats of Dave Dick and John Saylor. He also fanned nine men to finish with a season high of 106.

The Lions tallied their lone run in the first inning. Dan O'Dell got on via an error, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Dick's double to deep right. Saylor poked his base hit to right in the fourth and the Lions loaded the bases in the sixth, but a squeeze play failed and the contest ended on the putout.

The Rotary took advantage of four Lion miscues, a hit batsman and a single by Tim Bowling to score three times in top of the first. A double by Don Biggins, two more Lions' errors and a walk to Dave McDermitt resulted in three more tallies for the winners in the second. The final Rotary run crossed the plate in the fifth when Jim Hartman singled to right, went to third on two wild pitches and scored on Jeff Crushong's single to center.

Crushong and Bowling paced the winners with a pair of hits each.

GOODLING IS WINNER IN LINCOLN RACE

Gene Goodling strengthened his hold on the Lincoln Speedway point lead by winning the 25-lap modified-sportsman feature Saturday night.

Pete Kantorsky grabbed the lead at the start, Clem LaMaster took over on the third lap and held off the persistent challenges of Gene Goodling. On the 20th lap, while leading by three car lengths, LaMaster spun in the third turn, causing a restart.

Gene Goodling inherited the lead and held it to the finish. Bud Folkenroth, Paul Miller, Peewee Pobletts, Neil Haight, Johnny Roberts, Bob Tester, and Irvin King followed to the flag.

Charley Cockey won a real wreck-infested 20-lap late model main event. Gene Saine, Mike Wooldord, Frank Constantine, Bob Myers, followed the victor.

Heat victories went to Ken Slaybaugh, Ray Fanning, Moe Harden, Paul Miller and Clem LaMaster finished the second modified heat in a "dead heat." Gene Goodling took the third S-M prelim. Johnny Roberts, Willie Musselman and Calvin Calp finished the S-M Consi in that order.

The Lincoln Speedway will continue to present Saturday night double feature stock car racing as long as weather permits.

ALLEN WOULD LIKE BIG GOAL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Memo to Warren Giles, president of the National League:

Richie Allen, the Philadelphia Phillies' outstanding rookie third baseman, wants the National League to put up $1,000 for the rookie of the year.

Allen, who hit two home runs Sunday in helping the league-leading Phillies to a 9-3 victory over Pittsburgh, is in what appears to be a two-man race with Jim Ray Hart of the San Francisco Giants for roockie-of-the-year honors.

"There's no money in it," said Allen. "Let them put up $1,000 for the rookie of the year and it would be worthwhile. I have a family to support. As it is, rookie of the year doesn't mean a thing."

Allen even doubts if the honor would be worth a great deal when the time comes to negotiate a new contract.

MAURY WILLS SOUNDS OFF ON BALK RULE

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two years ago Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers contemptuously paid a $50 fine to National League President Warren C. Giles with 5,000 pennies.

If anything, the little shortstop's respect for Giles has since diminished.

Wills, who has run his salary up to $50,000 largely by stealing bases, accused Giles Sunday of stealing excitement from fans and opportunity from good baserunners by failing to have the balk rule enforced.

UMPIRES PENALIZED

In fact, Wills charged, the National League office has gone so far as to take money away from umpires who tried to enforce it.

Said Giles: "If Wills has a complaint, he should make it in writing. And he should get his facts straight before making public statements."

Giles did not elaborate.

Wills did. He said he had a long talk with an umpire recently "and he told me the whole story."

ONE LOST BONUS

"Last year the umpires who were calling all those balks early in the season were called into the National League office," Wills said. "At first the league office had wanted the balk rule enforced. Then the umpires really started calling a lot of them and they were told to cut down."

This annoyed umpires, Wills said, because it placed them in the impossible position of having to judge not whether a pitcher was balking but "whether he was balking too much."

Wills said he learned one umpire "lost his Christmas bonus because he enforced the rule and I believe one also was cut in salary for the same reason."

HAS 38 STREAK

The section of the balk rule that has caused perhaps the most trouble is the one providing that, with a runner or runners on base, a pitcher working from the set position must bring his hands to a stop before delivering a pitch.

Wills said the stop requirement is being ignored and this makes it difficult for the base stealer to decide when to take off.

Wills has 38 steals so far this season.

Wills set a modern major league record in 1962 by stealin 104 bases.

2 HS GRIDDERS DIE OF INJURIES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two 15-year-old high school players died after suffering football injuries over the weekend.

Daniel D. Pavey, a freshman fullback, died Sunday after collapsing Friday during the first football workout held by Washington Court High School in Washington Court House, Ohio.

Allen Wagner, a sophomore guard from McSherrytown, Pa., died Sunday after suffering head injuries during a practice session by Delone Catholic High School.

Football deaths declined last year to 14 after 19 deaths were attributed to the sport in 1961 and 1962. At least four have been recorded this year.

NITTANY LIONS OPEN DRILLS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State's 1964 football team opens its pre-season drills Sept. 1 with 16 lettermen forming the nucleus of coach Rip Engle's club.

Engle expects to have 57 candidates on hand as the Lions prep for their Sept. 19th opener at University Park with Navy.

Penn State never has suffered a losing season during Engle's 14 years at the helm.

This year, he says, he lacks the "necessary experience at certain key positions," but feels his club will have "adequate size and speed."

Key losses from the 1963 team which posted a 7-3 record, were quarterback Pete Liske, ends Don Caum and Dick Anderson, tackles Harrison Rosdahl and Terry Monaghan, halfback Junior Powell and linebackers Ralph Baker and Bernie Sabol.

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Barbara McIntire, fresh from her second victory in the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf tournament, turns now to the Curtis Cup match to be played in South Wales Sept. 11-12.

Last year 72 full-length movies were made in Britain.

Richie Allen, Philadelphia's hard - hitting third baseman, wears orange shoes, four-button suits and sports jackets with buckles in the back.

Now he's trying to stick a couple of feathers in his cap.

A leading contender for both Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player honors, the stand-out dresser and outstanding third baseman belted two homers and a single, driving in four runs Sunday as the National League leading Phillies walloped Pittsburgh 9-3.

HAD TWO HOMERS

The performance lifted Allen's batting average to .313, gave him 23 homers and 66 runs batted in, and once again shot him front and center as a distinct possibility to become the first rookie in major league history to win the MVP award.

Allen, whose chief competition for MVP honors might come from teammates John (All-Star Hero) Callison and Jim (Perfect Game) Bunning, hit a two-run homer against the Pirates in the third inning, hit a solo homer in the fifth and singled home a run in the eighth

Bunning, who went seven innings, benefited from the support, bringing his record to 14-4 with a 2.17 earned run average despite being tagged for homers by Roberto Clemente and Donn Clendenon.

REDS, GIANTS TIED

The victory boosted the Phillies lead to 7½ games over Cincinnati and San Francisco. The Reds lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers and Phil Ortega's three-hitter 1-0 while the Giants edged St. Louis 3-2 in 10 innings.

In other games, the New York Mets swept a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 10 innings and 5-4 and Houston beat Milwaukee 7-1 in a night game.

Ortega, who hadn't pitched a complete game since May 19, brought his record to 6-5 by keeping the Reds in check. The Dodgers, meanwhile, scored their only run against Jim O'Toole, 13-6, in the second inning on a double by Nate Oliver and Dick Tracewski's single.

METS WIN IN 10TH

The Cardinals pulled into a tie with the Giants on Lou Brock's homer in the eighth but lost it in the 10th when Jesus Alou scored from third on Dal Maxville's error.

Alou started the inning with a single, moved up on a bunt, raced to third on Tom Haller's long fly and scored when Maxville let Harvey Kuenn's grounder get away from him.

The Mets won the opener in the 10th after George Altman led off with a double and took third on a grounder. Ron Hunt and Joe Christopher then were walked intentionally, setting up a force at any base, but Ed Kranepool ruined the stretegy with a well-placed single to left.

WIN FOR LARSEN

The Cubs tried the same thing in the ninth inning of the nightcap and again lost while the Mets won their seventh in eighth games. Bobby Klaus singled and wound up on third with one out. Christopher and Altman were walked purposely, but one out later, Charlie Smith singled in the clincher.

Larsen, who hadn't pitched a complete game since July 2, 1959 when he was with the New York Yankees, allowed the Braves only five hits and retired 18 batters in a row at one stretch as the Colts scored their third straight over the Braves.

Atlantic City Called Many Names Since 1854; Still Attracts Millions Yearly

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — She's been called cheap brazen and an amusement center with a carnival-minded Boardwalk.

One cynical vacationer described her as "a conglomeration of ocean, emotion and promotion."

Some critics say she is just a little girl with her mother's makeup smeared on her face but to her publicity men, who lift their eyes above the Boardwalk and look at her tall, elegant hotels shining over the ocean at night, Atlantic City is "The Dowager Queen."

Atlantic City, a giant in the resort field for over a century, has established many patterns in resort facilities, entertainment and life which have been adopted by other communities throughout the nation.

The Boardwalk, lifeguards, rolling chairs, salt water taffy, picture post cards, bathing beauty contests, ocean piers and seashore hotels are counted among the city's first.

FIELD'S ACT

The resort is also the place where the late comedian W.C. Fields was gainfully employed as a "drownder."

Fields was paid by a saloonkeeper to swim into the surf, then scream for help. "Lifeguards," also in on the act, would rescue him and carry him to an oceanfront taperoom.

The curious crowd that always followed would celebrate Field's recovery with a cool drink or two, and the saloon which hired Fields for what were his first "public appearances" found it well worth the expense.

That's the sort of "promotion" the cynic in the sun had in mond.

Atlantic City makes a point of providing everything wanted by the millions of tourists and conventioners who come here each year.

POPULAR ATTRACTIONS

There are 15 cent ice cream cones and $1 cherry jubilees. Orange drinks and orange blossoms. Horses to ride and horses to bet on. Rooms for $1 a day with salt water bath and $125-a-day luxury suites with black satin sheets. And a stretch of white beach and a Boardwalk where millionaires rub elbows with factory workers.

Promotion became a serious-year-round enterprise here with the erection in 1928 of Convention Hall, an immense seafront building a block square which made Atlantic City a convention town.

The municipally owned hall is where the girls gather each year in an emotion-charged atmosphere to vie for the title of "Miss America," oldest of the beauty contests but another gimmick instituted in 1921 to prolong the summer season.

But international symposia on aerospace medicine, world-wide exhibitions of textile machinery and conventions of such large groups as the AFL-CIO and the National Education Association have been conducted there time and again to say nothing of the many sports events.

EARLY CLAM-DIGGERS

All this is a far cry from those pre-Revolutionary War days when the largest gatherings held here were seasonal visits by the Lenni Lenape Indians of the Delaware Nation who came to the ocean's edge to gether clams.

The ocean has always attracted visitors. Prior to 1850, this was a popular fishing village but trips to the shore had to be made by a combination of horse and carriage and boat because Atlantic City is on Absecon Island, a 10-mile sandy beach.

The two principal roads leading here, the White and Black Horse pikes, got their names from the horses that pulled competing stage coaches.

FIRST TRAIN IN 1854

The first train arrived here in 1854, the same year the city was incorporated.

In 1860, the little seashore town had 687 residents, most of them fishermen and operators of five small hotels and rooming houses.

Today the city has grown to the point where the motels, hotels and guest houses have 30,000 rooms and take in an annual average of 16 million visitors. The city's permanent population is just under 60,000.

Democratic National Convention Committee officials say they have assigned 10,700 rooms — accommodations for 17,500 persons — to delegates, alternate delegates and members of the working press.

BIRTH ON THE BOARDWALK

When Atlantic City was a thriving community of about 1,000 in 1870, hotelman and railroad officials began to worry about the mounds of beach sand tracked into their lobbies and trains.

Their complaints led to Atlantic City's first, and now much-immitated, Boardwalk. it sat on rows of posts about two feet above the beach. It was removed each fall and stored in a barn.

The Boardwalk enjoyed immediate popularity.

The present structure, 60 feet wide and 7 miles long, is the fifth the city has built. Maintenance costs about $200,000 annually.

Atlantic City is also famous for its salt water taffy. Some four million pounds of it are sold each year.

Local legend says a storm washed sea water over some confectionery on a Boardwalk stand and rather than throw it away, the owner named it "salt water taffy" and sold his stock faster than ever.

No one knows if the account is true, but it typifies the way Atlantic City entrepreneurs always capitalized on the sea and circumstances.

"HELLO, LYNDON"

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Carol Channing, star of Broadway's "Hello Dolly!" will attend the Democratic National Convention and sing the Democratic theme song, "Hello, Lyndon."

GOV. CONNALLY WILL NOMINATE FAVORITE SON

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — When Gov. John B. Connally of Texas and Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California nominate Lyndon B. Johnson for Democratic candidate for president, for Connally it will be like old times.

Connally, closely identified with the President throughout Johnson's political career, nominated Johnson for president at the 1956 convention, Adlai Stevenson won.

He became a leading strategist in 1960 in Johnson's bid for the nomination, won by John F. Kennedy. Johnson was persuaded to surrender the powerful job of Senate majority leader to take second place on the ticket.

GOV. JOHN B. CONNALLY

The hand of Johnson could be seen in Connally's appointment as secretary of the Navy, although Connally possessed the qualifications after experience as an administrator of two vast oil fortunes.

ELECTED IN 1962

Connally resigned to run for governor in 1962, winning against strong opponents.

The governor rode in Kennedy's automobile November 22 when the President was assassinated in Dallas.

One bullet struck Connally, crashing through his chest and collapsing a lung, piercing a wrist and embedding itself in his right leg. He was hospitalized for weeks and wore a cast on his wrist for months.

The governor won Democratic renomination for governor this year with ease.

A friend said recently that "Those Connally boys knew what wearing darned socks and patched britches were" when they helped their father on his ranch south of San Antonio.

JOHNSON SECRETARY

At the University of Texas, Connally became a campus leader, and while still a student helped Johnson in one of his campaigns. Later he became a Johnson secretary in Washington.

After World War II service in the Navy, Connally became a radio executive and then attorney and administrative executive for Perry R. Bass and the late Sid W. Richardson, extremely wealthy oilmen. He resigned to become secretary of the Navy.

Now 47, his hair streaked with gray, he remains a handsome, personable man showing almost no effects of his November 22 wounds. His current hobby is building a new home south of San Antonio and reclaiming semi-wasteland for ranching.

150 AP Staffers At Convention

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—More than 150 Associated Press newsmen and photo staffers have been assigned to cover the Democratic National Convention.

Among the writers will be Douglas Cornell, Jack Bell, Harry Kelly, Frank Cormier, Art Edson, James Marlow, Hugh Mulligan, Frances Lewine and Joy Miller.

The photo staff, which will total 50, includes 20 cameramen plus photo editors and darkroom technicians.

During convention sessions, private telephone lines will link the AP editing desks with reporters on the floor and the platform. Experienced, fast teletype and wirephoto operators will send copy and pictures out on AP national news wires and wire-photo network.

The Associated Press staff will work in three shifts, around the clock.

Platform Highlights

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) —Here are textual highlights from the foreign affairs and national security planks of the Democratic platform:

Democracy in America rests on the confidence that people can be trusted with freedom. It comes from the conviction that we will find in freedom a unity of purpose stronger than all our differences. . .

Accordingly, we offer this platform as a covenant of unity.

Peace should be the first concern of all governments as it is the prayer of all men.

At the start of the third decade of the nuclear age, the preservation of peace requires the strength to wage war and the wisdom to avoid it. The search for peace requires the utmost intelligence, the clearest vision, and a strong sense of reality.

Responsible leadership, unafraid but refusing to take needless risk, has turned the tide in freedom's favor, No nation, old or new, has joined the Communist bloc since Cuba during the preceding Republican administration.

Until such time as there can be an enforceable treaty providing for inspected and verified disarmament, we must, and we will, maintain our military strength as the sword and the shield of freedom and the guarantor of peace.

Control of the use of nuclear weapons must remain solely with the highest elected official in the country—the President of the United States.

We are determined to continue all-out efforts through fully enforceable measures to halt and reverse the arms race and bring to an end the era of nuclear terror.

We will maintain our solemn commitment to the United Nations. . .

We believe in increased partnership with our friends and associates in the community which spans the North Atlantic. . .

We pledge unflagging devotion to our commitments to freedom from Berlin to South Viet Nam.

In four vigorous years we have moved to the forefront of space exploration. The United States must never again settle for second place in the race for tomorrow's frontiers.

One rash act, one thoughtless decision, one unchecked reaction—and cities could become a smouldering ruins and farms a parched wasteland.

5,260 Delegates At Convention

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A total of 5,260 delegates and alternates will attend the Democratic National Convention here.

There will be 2,944 delegates plus 108 national committee members who have voting power, and 2,208 alternates.

Some of the delegates have less than one vote — since there are 2,316 total delegate votes. The number required to nominate is 1,159.

SEN. PASTORE IS DYNAMIC, EASY SPEAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Sen. John O. Pastore of Rhode Island was named keynoter of the Democratic National Convention, one of his colleagues remarked:

"Nobody will go to sleep while he's talking. And I hope they give him room on the platform to move about."

Pastore is regarded in the Senate as a free-flowing speaker who draws on what he knows instead of following a prepared speech, ready to take on all comers in a debate. He often dances about and flails his arms as he argues.

He is a champion of Civil Rights, always in the thick of the fight on social welfare legislation and foreign aid appropriations. He is chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, where he demonstrates an ability to translate nuclear terms into language less-versed laymen can understand.

Pastore was born of poor Italian immigrant parents in Providence, R.I., on St. Patrick's Day, 1907. He once said, "I always felt I had two strikes against me and to succeed I had to do a better job than anybody else."

He worked in his father's tailor shop and a jewelry store and attended law school at night. After he got his degree, he entered politics.

He was state representative, assistant state attorney general, lieutenant governor and governor. He was elected to the Senate in 1950. He was a member of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations in 1955 and a Congressional adviser in 1956 in the U.N. establishment of an international Atomic Energy Agency. He was a Senate representative to international energy conferences in Vienna in 1957 and Geneva in 1958 and 1961.

The convention arrangements committee's choice of Pastore as the keynoter is seen by some to emphasize Johnson's intention to bid strongly for support from the Eastern industrial states where minorities influence voting patterns.

Only Three VPs Won Nomination

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —Seven U.S. vice presidents before Lyndon B. Johnson stepped into the presidency when their predecessors died in office.

Afterward, each one sought a term in his own right. But only three were able to capture their party's nomination and go on to win election.

Andrew Johnson and Chester Alan Arthur attracted almost no interest as candidate material. Instead, their parties turned to Horatio Seymour and James Gillespie Blaine.

John Tyler and Millard Fillmore did somewhat better, although they, too were unable to convince either of the major political parties of their nominee potential. They were nominated by two splinter groups.

Tyler was proposed for the presidency by the Secessionist Democratic Convention of 1844, sometimes referred to as the National Democratic Tyler Convention.

Fillmore, who lost the Whig nomination in 1852 to Gen. Winfield Scott, ran for president in 1856 on the platform of the American (Know-Nothing) Party.

The three who achieved their goal of returning to the White House by popular election all were in this century — Theodore Roosevelt, Calvin Coolidge and Harry S. Truman.

If Johnson is elected, it'll be four in a row.

BANDINI WINS

ZELTWEG, Australia (AP) — Lorenzo Bandini of Italy drove his Ferrari to victory in the Grand Prix of Austria auto race Sunday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A State Department official says Cuba has ordered a halt in its purchases abroad, at least partly because of falling world sugar prices.

The official noted that world sugar prices have declined from 11.8 cents per pound in January — when supplies were short — to the current 4.3 cents. Sugar is Cuba's principal cash export crop.

Atlantic City Claims Largest Convention Hall

By TOM SEPPY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson will become the Democrat Party's standard bearer in Convention Hall, the largest indoor arena in the world, best known as the site of the annual Miss America Pageant.

Johnson will accept the Democratic nomination for president near the spot reserved each year for the crowning of Miss America.

Only a short distance to his right will be an area where in 1939, John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers got into a fist fight and stomped out of an American Federation of Labor convention to found what became the CIO.

Straight ahead, beyond the speaker's stand, was the finish line of the Greyhound racing track which did big business in 1934 until state authorities got around to declaring dog racing illegal in New Jersey.

THOUSANDS OF EVENTS

This resort's huge hall has housed thousands of events since its opening on May 31, 1929, but the Democratic National Convention will be the first major political conclave to be held there.

For it, the Democratic National Convention Committee intends to set up 20,000 folding chairs on the main floor.

Staged in the municipally owned and operated hall during the past 35 years have been football games, track meets, prize fights, jousting matches, ice hockey, horse shows, horse and bicycle races, polo and baseball.

The block-long, 13-story-high hall has also been the site for ballroom dances, "walkathons" operettas, shows from Broadway, a pony express race, motion pictures, school children's field days, daredevil auto driving exhibitions, an indoor "world's fair," and almost every year, an ice show.

USED AS CATHEDRAL

It has also doubled as a "cathedral" on several occasions. In 1940, during the Methodist Jurisdictional Conference, the largest seated audience ever to gather in the auditorium — more than 30,000 — attended a religious service. In 1958 and 1960, stand-up Catholic Masses were sung in the hall, the former to mark Our Lady of Lourdes pageant, and the latter, attended by some 50,000 worshippers, during the Marian Year celebration.

The $15 million hall, covering seven acres of ground and capable of seating 35,000 in the main auditorium alone, was opened with great fanfare. Vice President Charles F. Curtis made the dedicatory address.

The opening convention was that of the National Electric Light Association. The utility people were celebrating, according to their publicity, "Light's Golden Jubilee."

What the publicity men meant was that 50 years before, in 1879, Thomas A. Edison had invented the incandescent electric lamp. They really didn't mean Edison had invented light, they pointed out.

The delegates packed up their light bulbs, dynamos and holding company stock brochures and went home, leaving the auditorium for use of the American Hospital Association.

FUNERAL CONVENTION

Nobody noticed anything funny in the fact that with the departure of the hospital people, the next convention to move into the hall was the National Funeral Directors Association.

The hall has been a background for the dignified deliberations of the triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and, without straining a girder, has worked out well for the less restrained doings of such organizations as the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

It served as an Air Corps training center during World War II.

NO ACCURATE COUNT

Conventions come and go so frequently and so swiftly in Atlantic City that no tally is available of the number staged in the hall between 1929 and the present.

There are no columns in the main auditorium; the roof being supported by the largest trusses in the world. In fact, they are so large that a sliding joint is built around the roof to allow a three-inch space for expansion and contraction with changes in temperatures.

Speaking of temperatures, convention won't have to worry about the resort's August heat when they're inside the building. The main hall, 34 meeting rooms and ballroom are air-conditioned.

Music for the delegates' entertainment will be played on the world's largest pipe organ. It contains 32,913 pipes, with seven manuals in the main console and five in a movable console. Its largest pipe is 64 feet long and the smallest only 3-16 of an inch.

Seals Decorate 28 Light Poles

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP — Delegates to the Democratic National Convention, while strolling on the Boardwalk, may want to try to find their home state seals which decorate the light standards at the ends of 28 streets named for states.

The colorful plaques fashioned of clay were made as a WPA project by the arts and crafts section of the state administration. They were created in Trenton in special molds. The plaques bearing the state seal are also inscribed in Latin with the official motto of the state.

States represented and in the order they are on the Boardwalk, are Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticuit, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, South Carclina, Tennessee, New York, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Arkansas, Missouri, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, Texas, California and Iowa.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson returned to a favorite haunt Friday—the third-floor Capitol hideaway of Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La. Reason: Ellender's homemade gumbo.

The senator had invited Mrs. Johnson and the wives of several senators and Cabinet officers to sample his culinary specialty.

Johnson crashed the luncheon for two bowls of Ellender's gumbo, made from oysters, shrimp, crab meat, okra, celery and special seasoning.

Deprived Children Find New World In Education

WASHINGTON, D.C. — School always seems strange to the child attending classes for the first time.

But to some young one in the back-to-school trek this fall, the classroom will be strictly out of this world — it will be so different from anything their short lives have taught them to expect.

They are the three and four-year-old culturally deprived children who will take part in several educational experiments this fall with nursery schools and pre-kindergarten programs designed to reverse the effects of their own starved home environments.

More than two dozen large cities have, or are planning such preschool education. These programs, say authorities of the National Education Association, are proving a boon not only to parents too poor to hope for any future for their children but to educators strongly convinced that children must be caught early enough or be forever lost to education.

LACK BACKGROUND

Studies have shown that children from slum or disadvantaged areas lack the most ordinary familiarity with the world which the school takes for granted in the middle class child.

As reported in "Education U.S.A.," a publication of the National Education Association, a special teacher in a Brooklyn slum area said recently:

"When people speak about how the children can't learn or won't learn, I don't know how they can expect them to if they just have nothing to relate it to, nothing in their own lives that's beautiful or imaginative."

One of the most ambitious preschool programs is that directed by Martin Deutsch, head of the Institute of Development Studies of New York (City) Medical College.

One group of Negro children studied by Deutsch dramatizes the problem — 50 per cent said they did not have pens or pencils at home and almost as many said there were no books or magazines. When spoken to at all by adults, the children usually heard only monosyllables, "get this," "bring that."

DEVELOPS SKILLS

In public school and day-care centers, Deutsch is developing a curriculum and teaching techniques that will give slum children the skills they need to be able to read and to gain an awareness of themselves. Beauty and order are emphasized in the classroom setting. In working with parents, Deutsch tries to show them how to help their children —to encourage them to talk, to give them toys and books, to show an interest in what they are doing.

Examples of other preschool and nursery school programs are popping up everywhere. The September "NEA Journal" will feature an article about the Early School Admissions project in Baltimore, Md., which started as a three-year experiment in 1962.

"The story of the project is as exciting as a serialized mystery story," said the article. While it is too soon to tell whether or not the program will have any lasting effect, the enthusiastic response of children and parents makes teachers and school administrators hopeful.

The Early School Admissions Centers were housed in schools in Baltimore's most depressed neighborhoods. Children were chosen from these areas where the crime and delinquency rate was so high that teachers found it unwise to make home visits alone after dark.

A child who is selected to attend a center "enters a world of surprises, and every surprise teaching him something new," says the "Journal" article. "He is surprised to be encouraged to talk, allowed to run and taught to sing. He is surprised when the teacher asks his name, and more surpised that she considers it important enough for her to write it on a nice fresh card."

In Philadelphia, a special four-week course for four-year-olds was sponsored by the Board of Education the state Department of Public Instruction and West Chester State College. City, state, and national education officials were cheered at the success of this experiment.

STOPS DROPOUTS

"It's meaning, they said in a "Philadelphia Bulletin" interview, "is that the time to stop children from dropping out of school may be before they start."

Other cities — Ypsilanti, Mich.; Chicago, Los Angeles — have their preschool and nursery school plans. Some have already started, others are still in the planning stage.

The early admissions class is a new idea for the public school, but it has been in the minds of educators for a long time. U.S. Commissioner of Education Francis Keppel has been one of the advocators and said in a speech recently:

"If we in education begin our work with three and four-year-olds, with nursery school classes, we have a powerful chance to be influential in cancelling out deprivations that will otherwise affect every aspect of their lives."

TAYLOR WILL COME HOME FOR REPORTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid reports of new troubles in South Viet Nam, the administration has announced that Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor is returning home for consultations and to report in depth to President Johnson.

But officials insisted his return from Saigon was not to be taken as an indication any crisis was afoot.

The former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is to arrive Aug. 30. He may testify before congressional committees.

Taylor may be stepping from one hot seat to another, for the conduct of the Vietnamese war is flaring into one of the major issues of the presidential campaign.

NEW REVERSES

Taylor, the nation's top ranking military man before being assigned to Saigon, is expected to spend four days in Washington. Part of the reason for his trip, officials said, was that Taylor wanted to deal with some personal affairs.

In the background, however, were new Vietnamese military reverses in the jungle and angry Buddhist demonstrations in the streets.

The view expressed here is that now that Taylor has had six weeks to study the situation in South Viet Nam, it is important he report on the problems directly to Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Officials said he is not expected to ask more U.S. help for the Saigon regime.

Governor Lauds National Guard

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP) —Gov. Scranton, and former Gov. Edward Martin praised the Pennsylvania Army National Guard during annual Governor's Day ceremonies last weekend at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.

Scranton, in his short, ad-libbed remarks, said he was in attendance, not to receive tribute, but to pay tribute to the accomplishments of the guard.

Governor's Day in itself "is a tribute to the National Guard," he said.

Martin, who also served as a state adjutant general and U.S. senator, traced the history of the guard in his brief comments.

25 SIGN PETITION

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Pennsylvanians are among the 25 House Democrats who are signers of a statement calling for the seating of the delegates from the newly-formed Mississippi Freedom Democric Party, at the Democratic national convention.

The statement charged that the regular Democratic party in Mississippi, trying to seat its own delegation, subscribes to "repugnant principles" which reflect on the national party.

KUTZTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 15-year-old tradition of the Kutztown Fair slipped away like a greased pig Friday night.

In fact, that was the tradition —The annual greased pig chase.

The Berks County Humane Society protested that the chase was cruel to the pigs. The contest was canceled although some disappointed farmers disagreed. They argued the contest was usually more painful to the boys, aged 12 to 21, who took falls on the rocky terrain while trying to catch the pig.

GOING TO BAR RACIAL BIAS AT HOSPITALS

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government has taken broad steps to assure against any racial discrimination — "from here on out" — in private or public nonprofit hospitals accepting federal funds.

However, the new and strengthened regulations are not retroactive — and affect only hospitals which received funds since March 2 or will receive them in the future.

Opinions are being voiced — both from within and outside government circles — that a U.S. Supreme Court ruling which prompted the new action regarding institutions supported by the Hill-Burton Act may have far-reaching impact on many other hospitals.

SEE WIDE APPLICATION

Some hospital authorities say it's conceivable that, aside from the Hill-Burton matter, certain private, nonprofit hospitals might fall within the purview of the new civil rights law even when they receive no financial assistance from the federal government.

The Hill-Burton program, enacted into law in 1946, is the brainchild of Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., and former Sen. Harold Burton, R-Ohio.

Under the program, federal grants or loans are made available to assist in constructing and equipping needed public and voluntary nonprofit hospitals and other facilities.

Since 1947, Congress has appropriated annually from $65 million to $220 million for this purpose. Appropriations are distributed to the states and territories according to a statutory formula based on population and relative per capital income.

As the basis of action already taken by the federal government regarding Hill-Brown hospitals is a ruling of a U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, made last Nov. 1. The ruling was that any hospital accepting Hill-Burton construction funds must open its staff and facilities to everyone, regardless of race.

This case, now known as the "Simkins" case, involved two hospitals in Greensboro, N.C. — the Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital and the Wesley Long Community Hospital.

A group of Negroes, including physicians, dentists and patients, brought the suit against the hospitals with the aid of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People's legal defense and educational fund. The U.S. Department of justice intervened on behalf of the fund.

There were no casualties among the hunters, although a few of the hunted (particularly copperheads) were destroyed when they began to get frisky after their capture.

Mrs. Humphrey Takes Philosophical View Of Fortunes Of Politics In U.S.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Although the President is a man of surprises and conceivably could select someone not being given much attention as his possible running mate, widespread speculation has centured on two men; both personable senators from the same state. Here is the first of a two-part series on the wives of the potential Democratic vice presidential candidates, presenting Muriel Humphrey.

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

"You can't think too far ahead," said Muriel Humphrey calmly, "or you will stumble over today."

The trim, easy-going wife of Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota was discussing her reaction to the possibility President Johnson would select her husband as his running mate.

"I guess I'm like Scarlett O'Hara. I'll think about that tomorrow."

SHE'S PHILOSOPHICAL

The fortunes of politics have always been viewed philosophically by Muriel Humphrey. She was once quoted as saying "I can always take in washing."

"I said that a long time ago. Now with automatic washing, it should be a cinch," she chuckled.

Mrs. Humphrey has been involved in politics with her husband since he won his first election to become mayor of Minneapolis in 1945.

"In coming up the hard way through politics, and working with my husband as I did, I felt we could make a living no matter what we did."

Assuming her husband did get the Presidential nod for second place on the ticket, what would she do?

ANTICIPATES CAMPAIGN

"Well if — and it's an iffy proposition — if and when. I'd be working with my husband both in Washington and throughout the country and traveling with him in whatever role would be best. I'd be happy to fit in where I can.

"But I'm looking forward to campaigning again, no matter what."

Right now — until the convention — she will spend most of her time in Minnesota working on the "Four for '64" campaign, a program of the National Democratic Committee to get women to volunteer four hours a week to political activities and to get four people out to vote.

Then the whole family will descend on Atlantic City, including the children: Their oldest daughter Nancy, married to C. Bruce Solomonson, who lives near the Humphreys in Chevy Chase, Md. and the mother of two little girls; Hubert Jr., nicknamed Skip, 22, married to the former Nancy Lee Jeffery; Bob, 20 and Douglas 16.

YOUNG AT 52

The family dog, Lady, part-beagle and part fox-terrier — "whom we just rub behind her ears," says Mrs. Humphrey — will stay home.

Small, pixyish, with silver hair cut in bangs that make her look younger than her 52 years — and consequently moves most reporters to label her "prematurely gray" — Mrs. Humphrey is a delaxed foil for her effervescent husband.

She likes to sew and play the piano. But family and politics and friends take up most of her time.

One good friend is Abigal McCarthy, wife of Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota who has also been prominently mentioned in the vice presidential running. She says of Mrs. McCarthy:

"I think she is a great campaigner. Since 1954 we've traveled extensively together around Minnesota organizing women's volunteer groups and campaigning for each others' husbands. She is a very intelligent and able person, a good writer and a lovely hostess. I know she is very well liked in Washington. We've always been very close friends."

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — The search continued today for two convicts who escaped from Rockview Correctional Institution Saturday by scaling a 12-foot wall surrounding a prison recreation area.

Warden Angelo Cavell said Sunday that state police, the Civil Air Patrol and prison patrols were out looking for the two escapees: Carl Slade, 28, of Philadelphia, and John Fay, 21, of Pittsburgh.

Cavell said the main routes in the area "are being observed very closely."

Slade was convicted in Delaware County of assault with intent to rob and was sentenced to a 7½-15 year prison term. Fay was confined for 2-4 years for a robbery in Allegheny County.

POLICE PROBE BOY'S DEATH

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police sought clues today in the slaying of a 10-year-old boy, who was found dead in high weeds near a golf driving range in Fairmount Park.

The medical examiner's office said the boy, Henry Glenn, apparently had been suffocated.

Henry, who was reported missing by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Glenn, last Thursday night was found Sunday. He was lying on the ground, face down, police said. His shirt was pulled over his head, and his trousers lay a short distance away, detectives added.

Homicide detective Lt. Frederick Ruffin said there were slight burns on the calves of the boy's legs. Grass around the body was singed.

Ruffin declined to theorize about the burns or about how the boy was killed. He said, however, that a depression in the ground showed the boy's head had been pressed hard into the grass.

Mrs. Glenn said Henry had gone to a driving range and miniature golf course to earn money recovering golf balls when she last saw him.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — An extensive burglar alarm system and a steel door in the back failed to prevent burglars stealing nearly $50,000 in furs from a Connecticut Avenue store, the French Poodle.

The burglars broke into an office above the store, owned by Mrs. Alvin Epstein. They cut a hole through the ceiling of the shop, lowered themselves with a rope or rope ladder, and made away early Sunday with furs valued by the owner at nearly $50,000.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Secret Service reports it seized a record $7.2 million in counterfeit currency during the year ended June 30.

Chief James J. Rowley of the Secret Service reported that agents uncovered 44 counterfeit plants and arrested 737 persons during the year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Higher pay and good assignments are twin lures being offered by the State Department to boost the supply of U.S. diplomats who can speak one of 29 difficult languages.

The higher pay may be up to $1,000 additional a year. The promise of good assignments could lead to an ambassadorship.

The incentive program is aimed at getting 1,000 officers — one fourth of the U.S. diplomatic corps — equipped with one of the native languages of remote countries.

Only about 600 U.S. career diplomats now meet this qualification.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Meat imports will be kept 15 per cent below last year's record level under a bill signed by President Johnson Saturday.

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — William K. McInaily, 58, an alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention, died Saturday of a heart attack at his home. An attorney, he was a director of several firms and a member of the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

FABIAN BUILDS NEW IMAGE IN SCREEN ROLES

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Take a Philadelphia teen-ager off a front porch, give him the handle of Fabulous Fabian, make him a pop singer even if he can't sing, expose him to the screams of frantic females, put him into the bigtime with veteran stars.

What happens afterwards?

In the case of Fabian, it is a wonder that he didn't end up shattered as a person and forgotten as a personality. Now 21, he seems to have survived.

Fabian had just finished a role with James Stewart in "Dear Brigitte". The lad was preparing to leave on a tour to plug "Ride the Wild Surf," in which he starred for Columbia.

MEMORY DIM

It was to be his first extensive meeting with the public in three years, during which he has striven to escape the anonymity that threatens all teen-age idols.

The Fabian saga was etched in the hearts of mlilions of young girls—how he was discovered in front of his own home by the mentor of Frankie Avalon, how he was manufactured into a star in one of the greatest selling campaigns since the Edsel.

His memory of those early days: "I don't remember anything about the performances. I got on the stage, did the songs and got off without the slightest recollection of what had happened.

SOME THOUGHTS AT 18

"Every time I had to go before the public I was terrified. It's a strange feeling to find suddenly that wherever you go there will be girls screaming and tearing at you."

But how long would the notoriously fickle teen-agers go on buying? Fabian was barely 18 when he gave the matter some thought.

"The first time I thought that I might have a future in the acting business was when I did 'North to Alaska' with John Wayne," he said. "I got the first good reviews I had ever received."

BUILDS NEW IMAGE

He decided to make a clean break. He paid off the contract with his discoverer-manager. He started serious study of dramatics. And he stopped singing. He hasn't made a record in three years.

As part of his campaign for a new image, he even proposed resuming the use of his last name, which is Forte.

"But producers told me they were buying Fabian, not an actor named Fabian Forte," he said. "That's all right with me — as long as they keep buying."

Beauty Pageant To Open Tonight

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — The week-long Miss United States beauty pageant opens tonight minus five lovelies.

Pageant officials disqualified them because they do not live in the states they represented — Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Robert Schaub, the pageant attorney, said all five lived in Massachusetts. Winner of the Miss United States title will be selected Friday.

Siamese Twins Born In S. Africa

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Siamese twins joined at their heads were born over the weekend to a Cape Town white couple, the South African Press Association reported today.

An operation to separate the infants is planned. Condition of the infants and the mother was reported satisfactory.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Annette Funicello, the Walt Disney Mousketeer who grew up to be a glamorous young star of the movies, plans to marry her agent.

The wedding will be in January, she said.

Cleo Rages Toward Jamaica After Belting Guadeloupe

By LOUIS ICHITELLE

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Cleo, worst hurricane of the season, raged across the Caribbean toward Jamaica today, leaving behind a path of death and destruction.

The storm swirled past southern Puerto Rico Sunday after battering the Guadeloupe islands. Officials blamed Cleo for at least 14 deaths, 100 injuries and $50 million in damage to the French possession.

EXPECT FLOODING

Cleo will probably strike Jamaica tonight with hurricane force, the Weather Bureau said.

Gale force winds and heavy rain pounded the southern coast of the Dominican Republic early today. Small but powerful Cleo, with 140-mile center winds, pressed onward south of the island of Hispaniola, which the Dominican Republic shared with Haiti. Severe lowland flooding was predicted.

The Weather Bureau said that Cleo's 125-mile wide mass of hurricane force winds apparently would skirt Hispaniola's heartland. The storm was headed toward Haiti's southern peninsula, where thousands were killed last year by Hurricane Flora.

Cleo also might strike Cuba with its fury intact, the Weather Bureau said. It was too early to say whether it would pose any danger to the U.S. mainland.

Cleo was centered at 4 a.m., edt, about 125 miles southwest of Santo Domingo City, moving on a path between west and west-northwest about 17 m.p.h.

KEN VENTURI WINS AT AKRON BY 5 STROKES

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Ken Venturi's smashing five-stroke victory in the $50,000 American Golf Classic Sunday was doubly satisfying to golf's comeback king of 1964.

In addition to a $7,500 check, which boosted the national champion's earnings to $53,840, the triumph assured Venturi that his U.S. Open victory was no fluke.

The Classic was a big hurdle for Venturi. He missed the 54-hole cut in 1962 and last year he picked up a $110 check. But the long 7,165-yard Firestone Course finally yielded to him. His victory over Mason Rudolph came on a final round of 35-34—69 and a 275 total—one stroke better than the four-round record of 276 set by Arnold Palmer in 1962 and tied by Johnny Pott last year.

ONLY ONE BOGEY

Venturi's only bogey Sunday came on the 18th and final hole. He started the round with a two-stroke lead over Rudolph. He boosted it to four strokes as he put together 11 straight pars and clinched the victory with a birdie two on the 12th hole while Rudolph was getting a bogey.

In a run for second place Rudolph with a 37-35—72 and 280 finished one stroke ahead of Palmer, who had 35-34—69 and 281.

Jack Nicklaus shot a final 37-36—73 to finish fourth with 285.

GIRL ENROLLS FOR TRAINING IN POLICE UNIT

By THOMAS J. MOORE

CHICAGO (AP) — Coeds who are wont to calculate the male-to-female ratio might envy Virginia Rakocinski's situation: 300 to 1 and she's the one.

But the subjects she studies are a far cry from the usual coed fare — jujitsu, narcotics, criminal law and pistol shooting.

Miss Rakocinski, 24, of suburban Evanston, is enrolled in the Chicago police training division's 13-week course with 300 men.

The attractive brunette is the first woman to go through the course with men.

REGULAR CLASSES

Female trainees usually attend the school in a separate class. This time Miss Rakocinski was the only girl candidate and it was judged impractical to set up a special class for her.

Despite the ratio, she hasn't been dating.

"I'm here to study," she said, "besides, don't forget many of the men are married."

Miss Rakocinski, a shapely 5-foot-5, 120-pounder, said she decided to become a policewoman "because I wanted to do something very different and challenging."

She already has met one challenge: she topped 42 applicants to win a policewoman's job on the Skokie police department. Skokie is a suburb served by the Chicago police training school.

A graduate of Mundelein College in Chicago, with a degree in chemistry, Miss Rakocinski quit a job in the radicactive research department of a Skokie pharmaceutical firm.

DEATHS

NEW YORK (AP) — Benjamin J. Davis, 60, national secretary of the Communist party of the United States, died Saturday after a long illness. He served more than 3½ years in prison after being sentenced to five years and a $10,000 fine in 1949 after conviction of advocating the forcible overthrow of the government.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Louis Pollock, 60, movie writer credited with "The Jackie Robinson Story" and a version of "The Lady and the Tramp," died Sunday in his home. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Charles Stevens, 71, veteran actor known by face to millions and by name to few, died Saturday. Known to Hollywood as "Indian Joe," Stevens was a grandson of the famed Apache chief Geronimo. Stevens had been in pictures since 1914.

CARLSBAD, Calif. (AP) — Charles Stephenson Smith, 89, chief of The Associated Press foreign service in the 1920s, died Friday. In a long career with the AP, Smith had been assigned to many major cities of the world, including London, Moscow, Peking and Berlin.

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — J. Curtis Lyons, 66, former executive editor of the Petersburg Progress - Index, died Sunday. He had been ill two months.

YORK, S.C. (AP) — Caroline Coleman, 42, television personality and Broadway understudy actress, died Friday of a gunshot wound which the York County coroner termed self-inflicted.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — A. W. Shipton, 70, a former president of Copley Press, Inc., died Sunday at home after a long illness. A native of Elgin, Ill., he began his newspapering career in 1917. He retired as Copley president in 1961.

Miller Orchestra At Hershey Park

The Glenn Miller Orchestra, directed by Ray McKinley, will appear at Hershey Park's Starlight Ballroom Saturday night and will feature authentic Miller arrangements and Lenny Hambro, famed instrumentalist.

Miller and McKinley worked together more than 25 years ago when both were members of such great bands as Ben Pollack, Smith Ballew and the Dorsey Brothers. Miller lost his life in World War II but in 1954 a great Miller music revival took shape, sparked by a movie of his career. Chosen by the band members to lead them was Ray McKinley, a close friend of Miller's.

The Spring Garden Band of York will play free afternoon and evening concerts at the park bandshell Sunday, ending Pennsylvania Dutch Days. Concerts are scheduled from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

BARRY TO LIST POLICY STANDS AT N. Y. DINNER

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater carries his views on campaign issues to leaders of business and industry today after a word to the farmer: "Price support programs should be voluntary."

The Republican presidential nominee planned to fly to New York for a private reception and dinner with business men and industrial leaders.

A spokesman said Goldwater wanted to outline his stand on foreign and domestic issues, and answer businessmen's questions.

No guest list was announced. The afternoon reception is being sponsored by Percy Douglas, president of the Otis Elevator Co. Hosts for the dinner are George Champion, chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank and Ralph Cordiner, retired chairman of the General Electric Co.

"FREE AGRICULTURE"

Goldwater turned his attention to agriculture Sunday in a statement declaring the goal of the Republican party is "a free and prosperous American agriculture with a minimum of federal controls and interference.

"The Republican party is the farmers' party," Goldwater said.

"We will resist all efforts to make the farmer dependent, for his economic survival, upon either compensatory payments by the federal government or upon the whim of the secretary of agriculture.

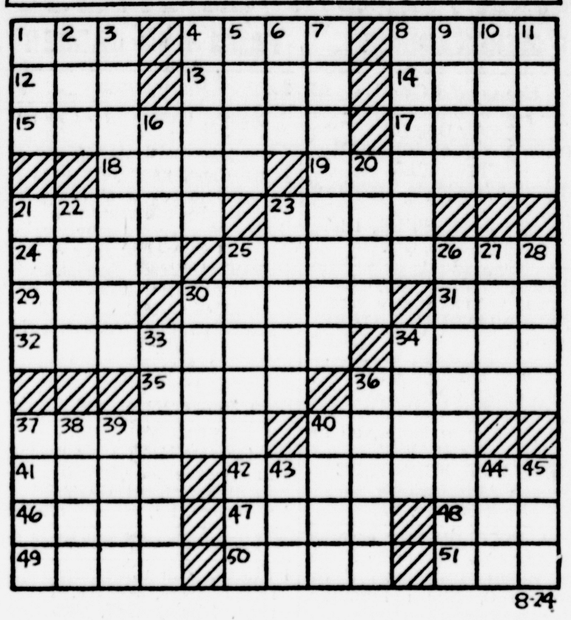

"Price supports should be designed to help farmers achieve orderly marketing within the framework of our dynamic American market system. Price support programs should be voluntary and should be established for specific commodities in order to widen markets, ease production controls, and help achieve increased family income," Goldwater said.

Goldwater denounced the program for wheat farmers put into effect this year.

He said the Republicans would repeal what he called "the administration's wheat certificate 'bread tax' on consumers, so burdensome to low income families and overwhelmingly rejected by farmers.

"This program has become a nightmare under massive mismanagement of the Johnson-Freeman administration," Goldwater said, referring to the President and Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elmira has moved back into first place in the Class AA Eastern League in its see-saw battle for the pennant with Springfield.

The Pioneers took a half game lead over Springfield on the strength of a doubleheader victory over Williamsport Sunday, 5-4 and 5-0.

Springfield, meanwhile, split a pair with York, winning the opener, 3-2, but dropping the nightcap, 3-1.

In the only other action, Charleston defeated Reading, 11-6.

Elmira, rained out the past three days, made it 11 victories in the last 12 games and 18 of the last 22. Nat Martinez (8-7) pitched a three-hit shutout in the second game after Steve Cosgrove (11-8) won his fifth straight in the opener with relief help from John Hogg in the seventh.

Tom Arruda (16-7) gave up only five hits in pitching Springfield to its first game victory, but the Roses bounced right back behind the five-hit pitching of Bill Haywood (2-3) to take the nightcap.

Three walks by York pitcher Barry Moore (5-16) in the seventh inning cost the Roses the opener as Springfield scored the decisive run in the final inning.

Bob Anderson, recently cut loose by the New York Giants, was the star in Army's last football victory over Navy, in 1958. The score was 22-6.
